Rough Rider Country

Gaines Leads Spirit Organization

Patience would probably be the most important virtue of anyone leading the Roosevelt Cavaliers; SALLY GAINES gained plenty of experience in patience after long hours of performing routines. Dances and pom-pom numbers had to be rehearsed and rehearsed until every single one of two hundred girls knew every step of every routine. Being Cavalier captain also meant that SALLY had to represent Roosevelt at many activities and affairs involving spirit organizations. One of these incidents occurred when SALLY went to Krueger Middle School to recruit future Cavaliers. SALLY was also active in drama, the German Club, Campus Life and TAGS.

Chosen "Star-Spangled Girl" in national drill competition, JANET WIEGMAN upheld the high standards for which the Patriots are famous. Vivacious, charming and cheerful are all adjectives which describe JANET and explain her popularity wherever she goes. Despite the heavy schedule of performances and workshops which, as colonel, JANET attended, she remained active in various clubs and activities including Campus Life, German Club, Council of Presidents, and F.C.A. (Fellowship of Christian Athletes).

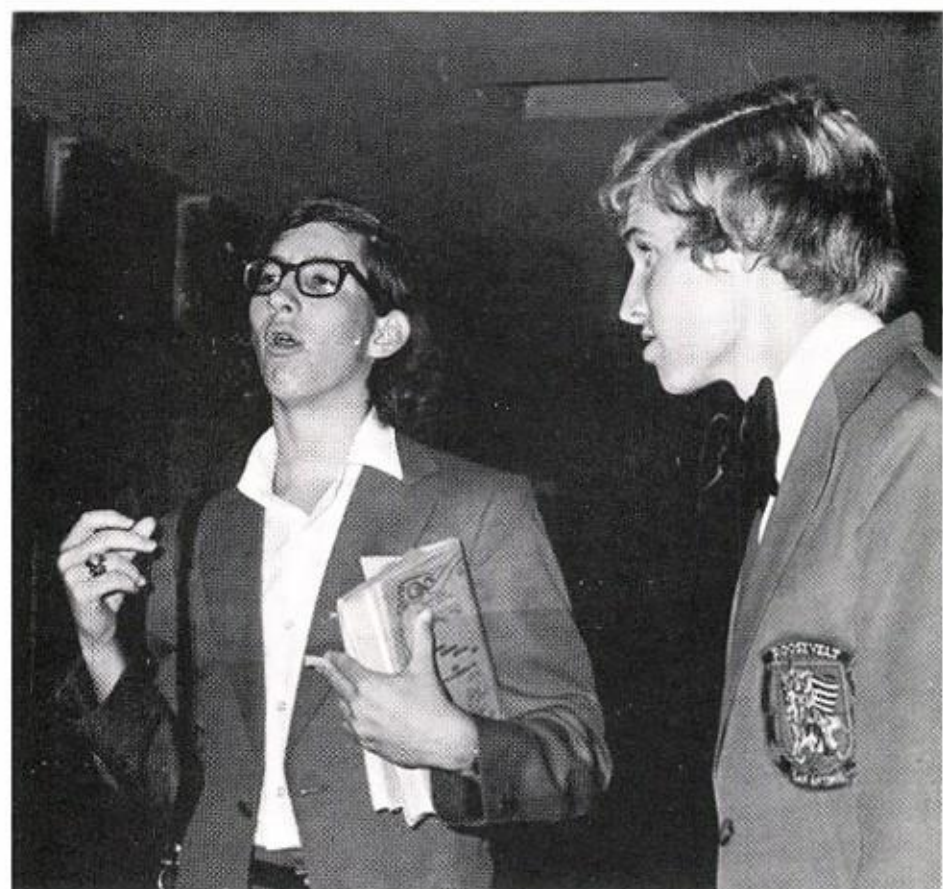

"Star-Spangled Girl" Heads Patriots

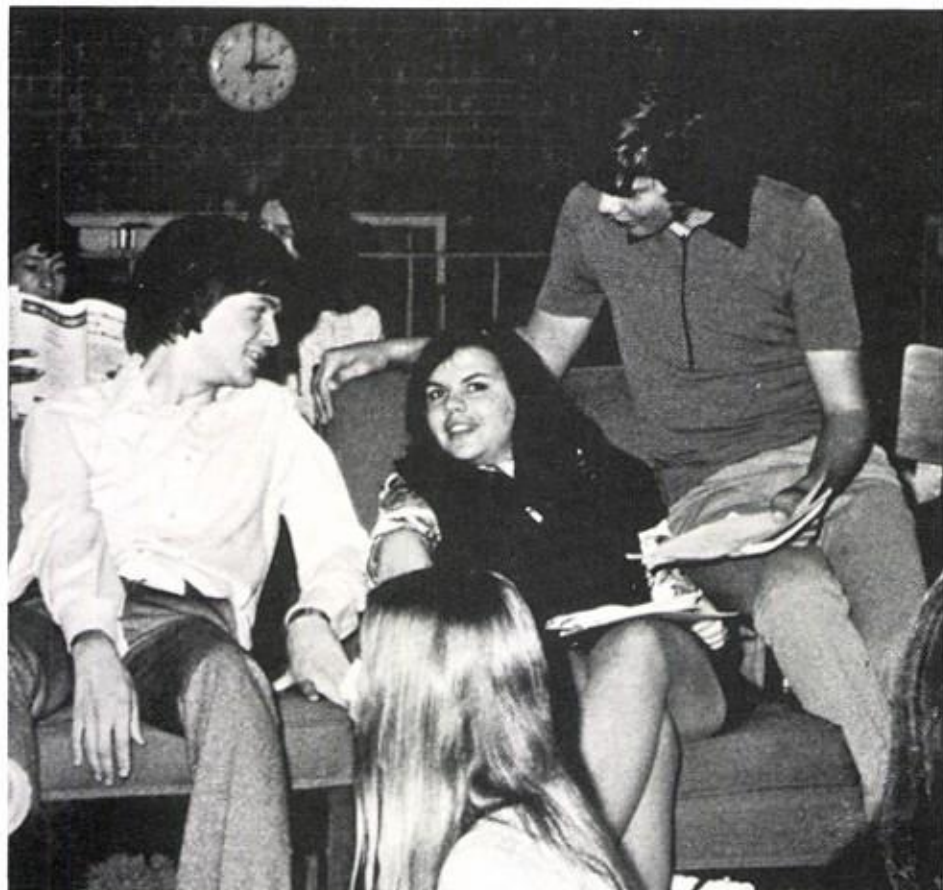

Being a drum major involves more than rank and prestige, it involves shaping a group of musicians into a top-notch band. It is the drum major who has all eyes upon him as the band steps onto the field. For two years RICHARD MILLER, an all-district tuba player himself, has been drum major of the Rough Rider band; for two years he has led the band to countless awards and honors including one of three feature bands of the Fiesta Parade. Besides his musical accomplishments RICHARD also takes part in other school activities. He is a member of Campus Life, president of his advisory, and a spirited fan at all athletic events.

Miller Guides Award Winning Band

Choir President Voices Leadership

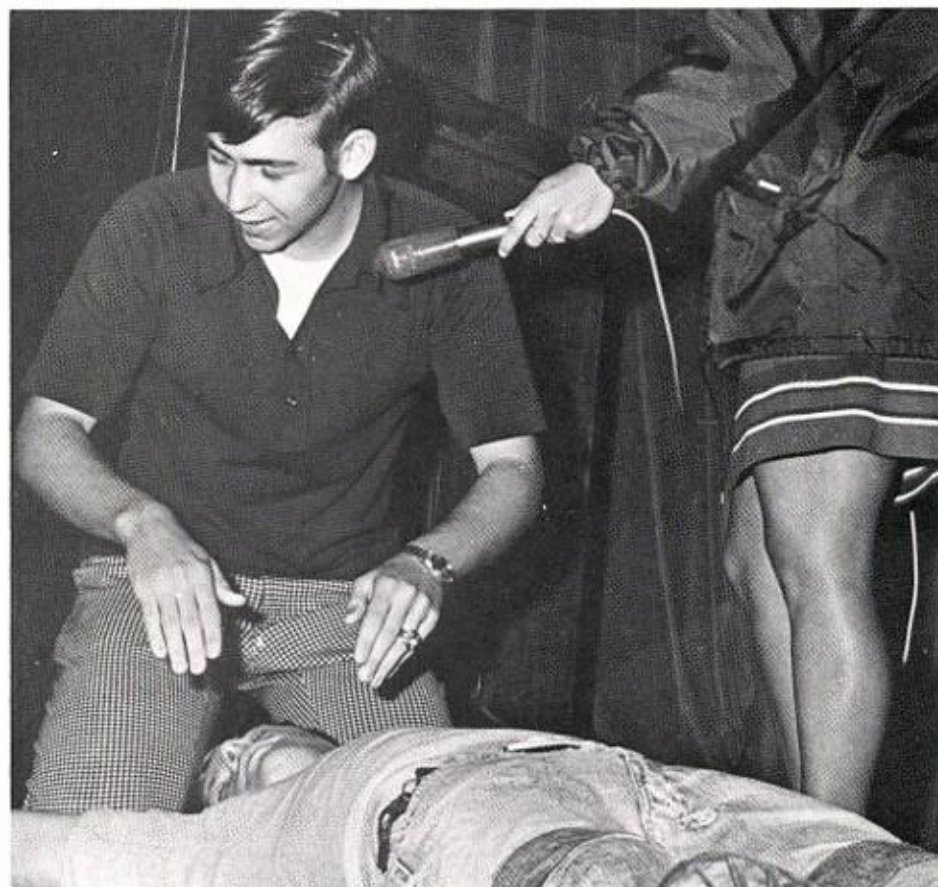

Chosen Choir president of the 1973-'74 year was DEBBIE RABY. DEBBIE will probably be remembered throughout the history of Roosevelt, because it was during her presidency that the Choir won an unmatched number of honors and awards. Debbie has been a four-year choir member and has distinguished herself in U.I.L. competition in her own right. Like many other involved students, DEBBIE's activities are widespread. She is a member of Mu Alpha Theta and a member of National Honor Society in addition to her other honors.

Cadet Colonel HAROLD C. (WOODY) DAVIS, JR., not only served as Corps Commander of the Roosevelt ROTC, but also served as president of the Student Council. Active in many school and civic affairs, WOODY had the distinction of being selected as the second place winner in the Boys Division of the Elks National Youth Leadership Contest along with a $1,750 Educational Certificate. Under his leadership the Student Council initiated a campus beautification program, made a chain boundary for the smoking area, opened Student Council meetings to all interested students, distributed ID's and worked for the improvement of student facilities. WOODY was also a member of NHS, Mu Alpha Theta, Key Club and an honor student.

Hennessy Gives Prestige To Big Stick

As editor of the BIG STICK, KATIE HENNESSY brought the newspaper to an excellence which placed it among the top five high school publications in the state. Although being editor was a full-time, day and sometimes night-time job, KATIE also excelled in numerous other activities. She founded and later served as both vice-president and secretary of the Ecology Club, was co-editor of the Outlook for three years, served as secretary and later president of Quill and Scroll, was a member of both the NHS and the Social Studies Honor Club and won countless U.I.L. awards. In addition to this KATIE, a ten-year member of the Girl Scouts, piloted a clean-up program for the Salado Creek area, and graduated as an Honor Student.

Editing a yearbook involved more than finding a group of pictures and laying-out a page; SAGAMORE editor NANCY UGALDE had a full year to find this out. Editing the Sagamore involved staying after school and many times working at school during weekends and holidays, but the yearbook proceeded as scheduled and all went well. Being busy on the yearbook did not stop NANCY from participating in many other school activities, however. She was a member of the German Club, vice-president of Quill and Scroll for two years, member and former reporter of Mu Alpha Theta, vice-president of NHS, member of the Social Studies Honor Club, co-editor of the Outlook for three years and student advisor on the Roosevelt Guidance committee.

Foreign Student Brightens Up TR

The 1973-'74 Theodore Roosevelt foreign student was ELIZABETH TARRADELLES PERRIN. ELIZABETH arrived in San Antonio from Bolivia (South America) speaking only a few English words such as: "hello," "goodbye," "yes," and "no," but when she returned home after a year at Rough Rider Country, she could both understand and speak a surprising amount of the language. Her main worry in leaving Roosevelt was that everything in Bolivia would seem different, and she had to admit she would miss TR. During her stay at Roosevelt, ELIZABETH was a member of AFS, French Club, and Spanish Honor Society. More than this however, she was a well-loved member of the student body.

Newcomers to TR, Silvia and Rosario Pineda, pictured respectively, have come from Nicaragua in hopes of learning English. A willingness to learn has helped the girls adjust to most of their classes.

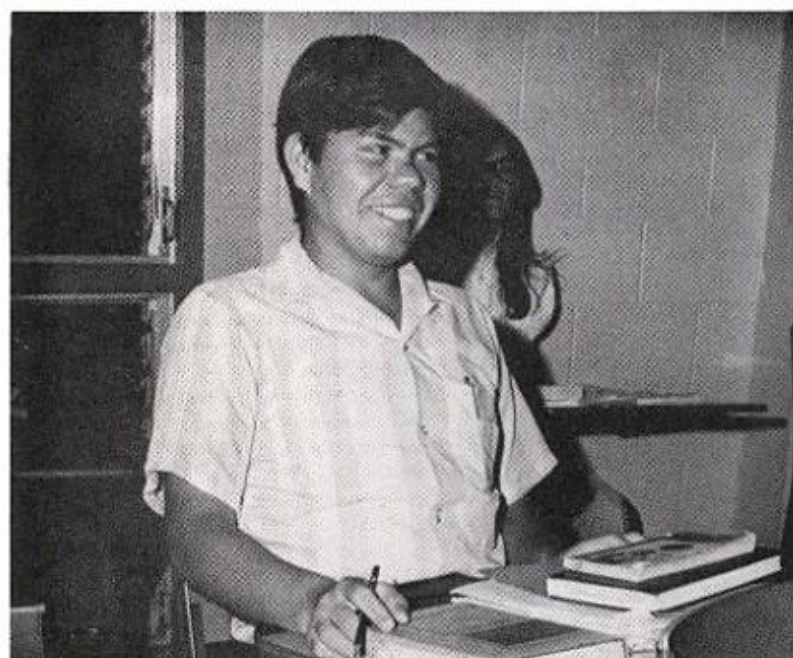

Sakkarim Gucaladiyom (Gua) of Thailand has come to America to master the English language and hopes to make many new friends during his stay.

Nationalities Converge On TR Campus

Jacobo Palafox, of Mexico, likes San Antonio because the weather reminds him of his home in Saltillo. Having toured all over Mexico, Jacobo's hobby is to go places he has never been before.

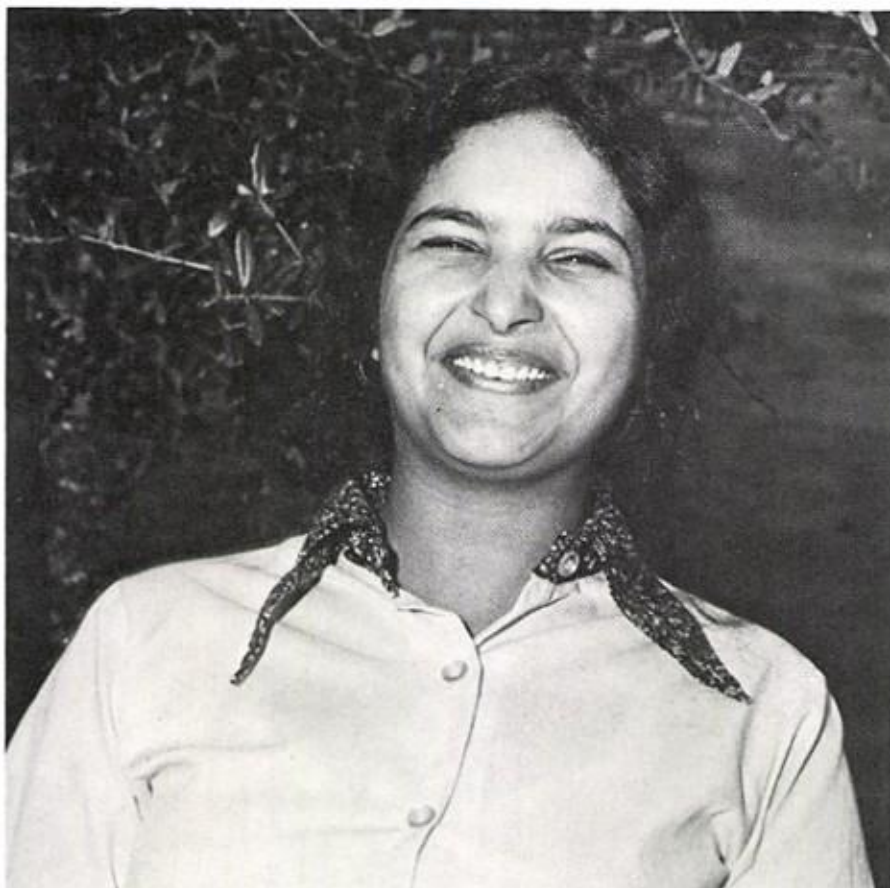

Surprised at its size, Sharon Sin of Korea has had a bit of trouble adjusting to life at TR. Sharon expresses a liking for San Antonio, however she hopes to return to her native Korea next year.

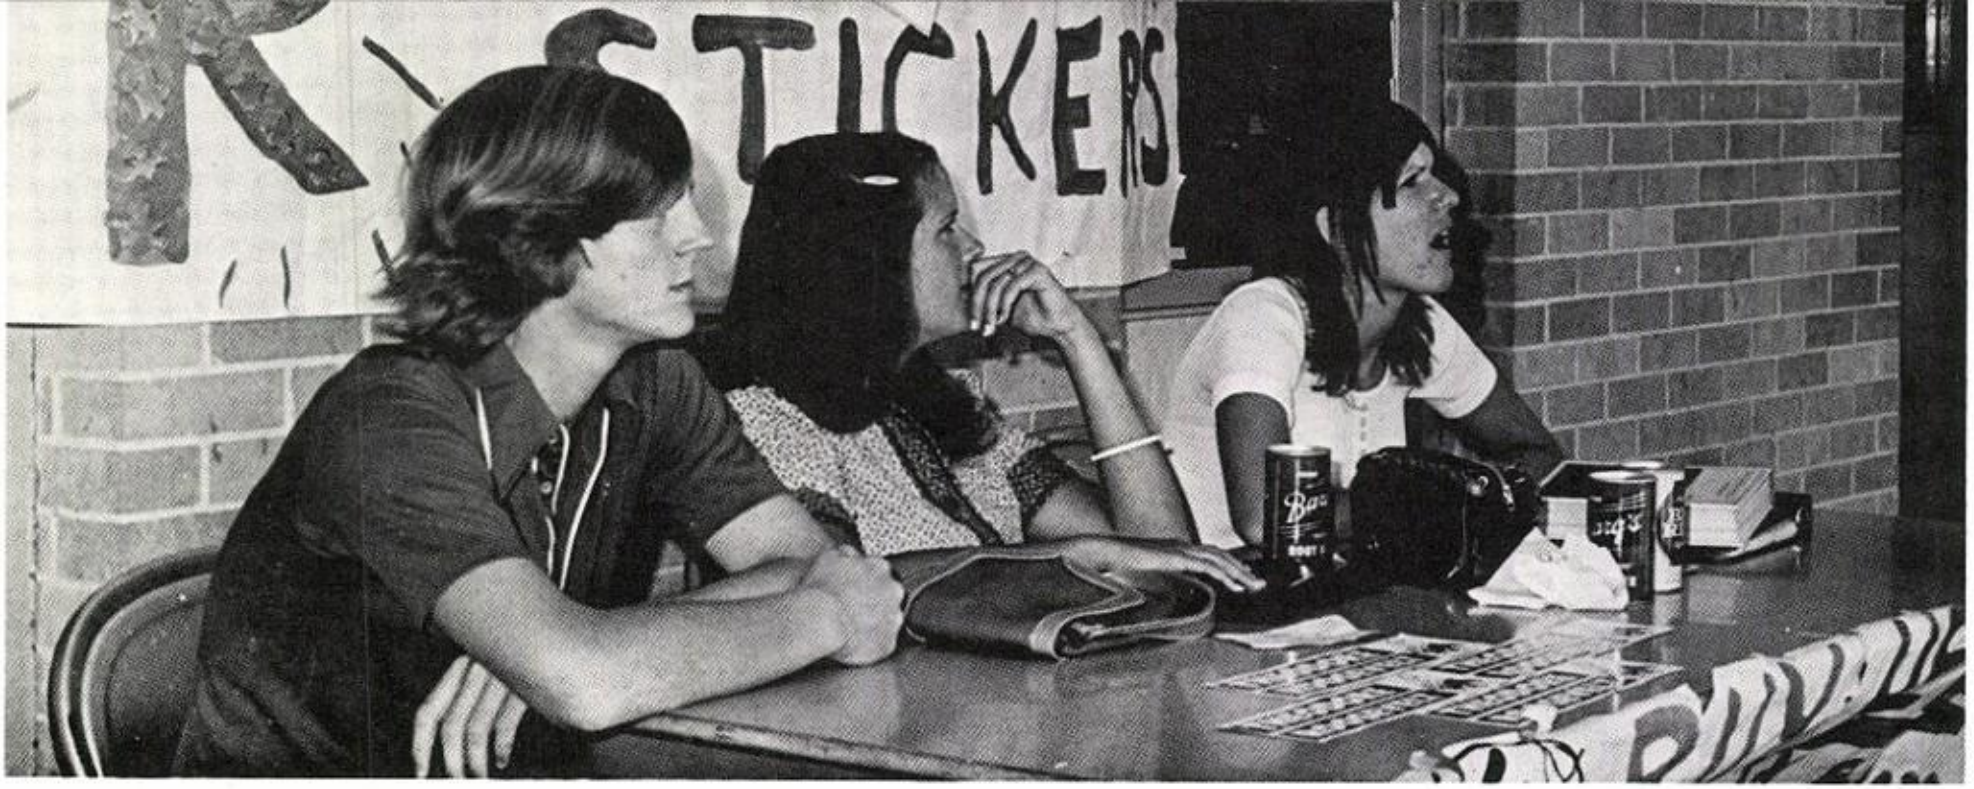

Adapting themselves to San Antonio has not been hard for Eleana and Esau Alfaro because of their Mexican heritage. Both Eleana and Esau hope to make good enough grades to go on to college.

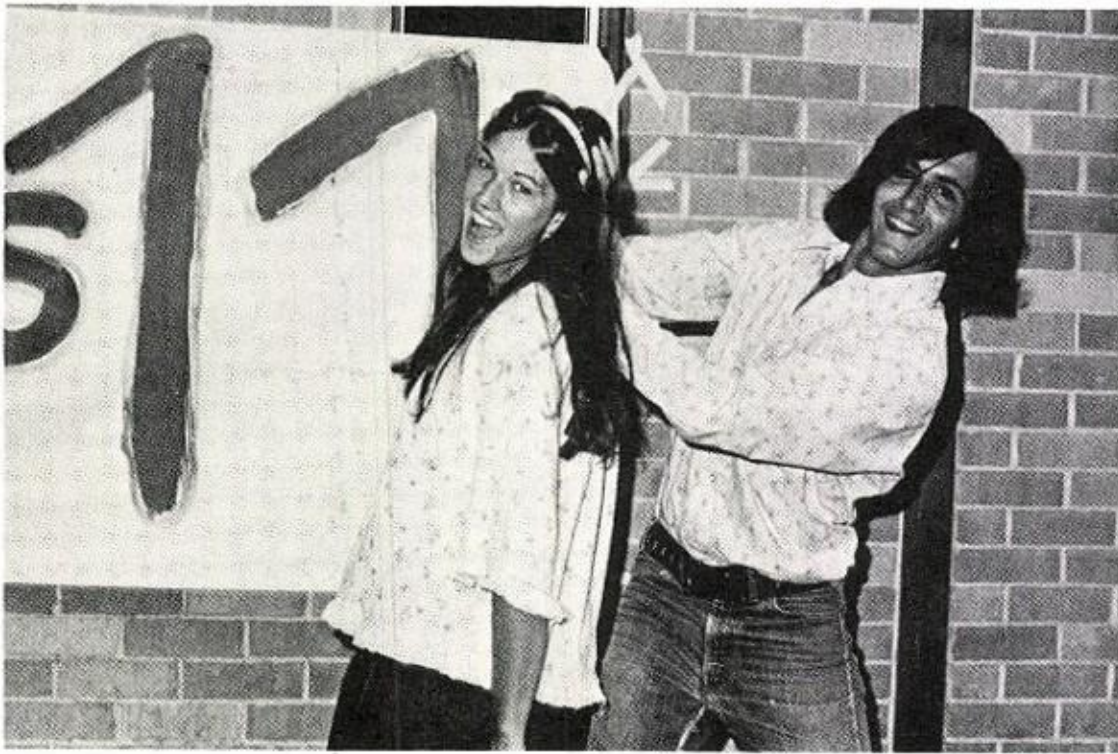

Having lived in Libya, Mary Lowry says that Americans aren't as nice as the people abroad, however she feels that the U.S. is much cleaner than the countries overseas. She likes the liberal outlook Americans have.

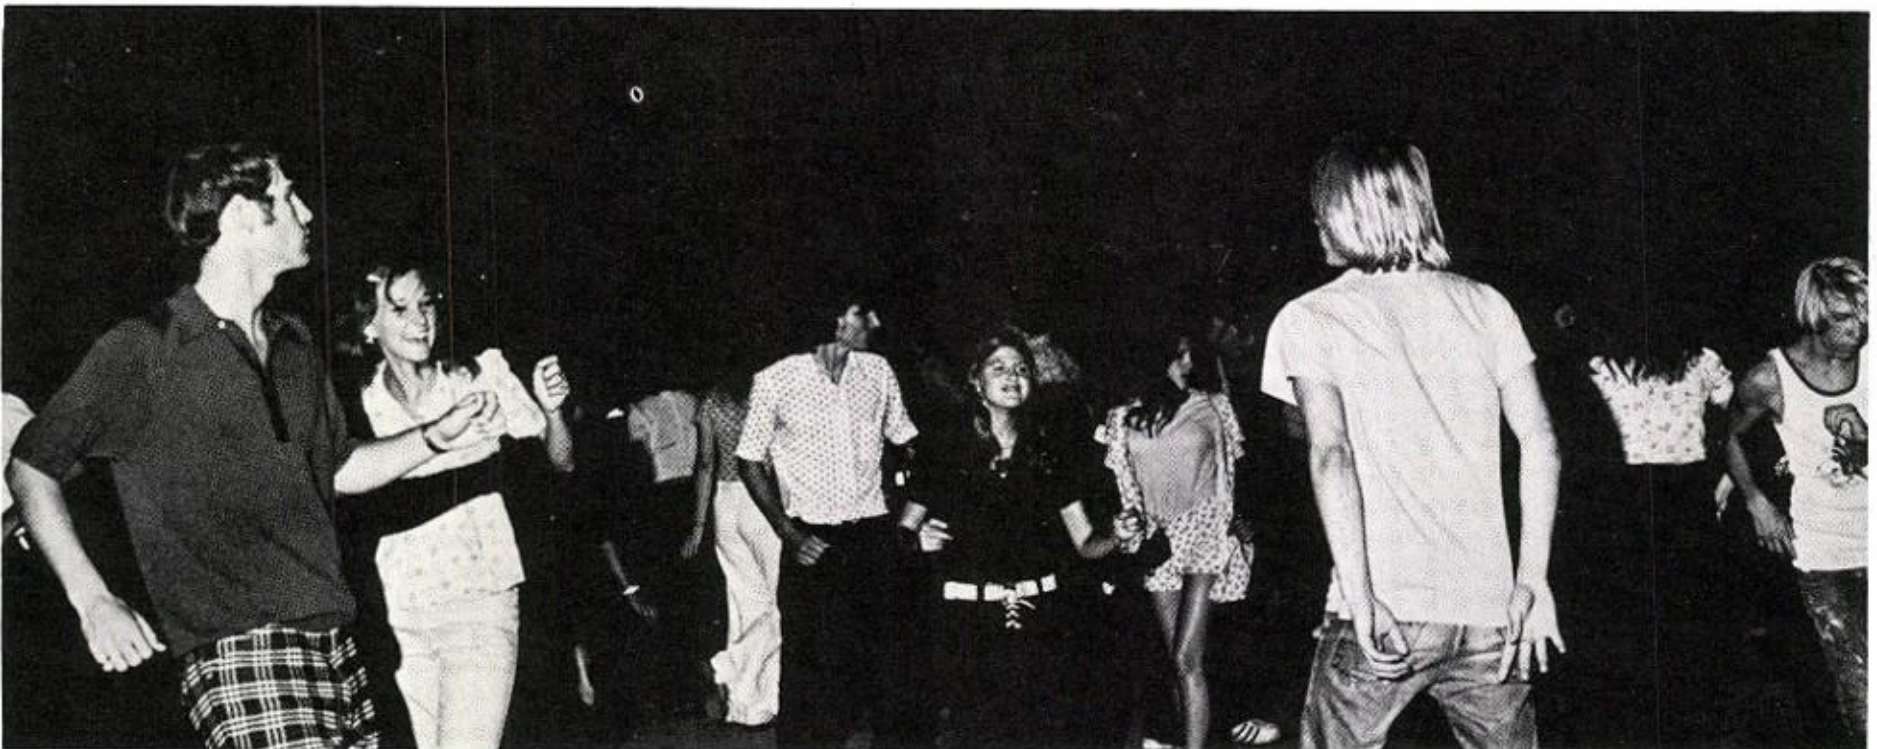

Juniors Guy Bason, Holly Richeson, and Marilyn Tims have one thing in mind, selling spirit bumper stickers for the junior class.

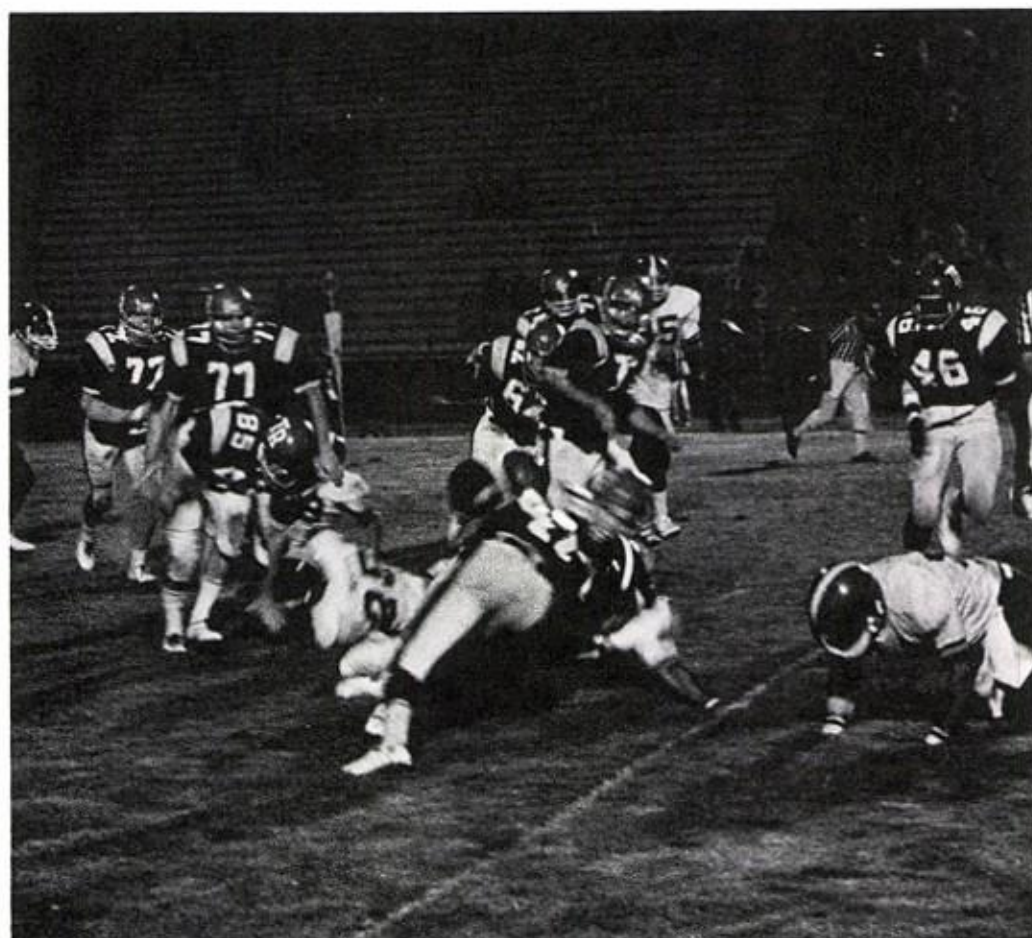

Helping decorate for the Howdy Dance, Cathy Sweeney and Chris Marsh demonstrate: seniors and juniors relate.

Howdy Week: Strangers Become Friends

Dancing to the music of Summerhill, everyone was in the mood for having an enjoyable time on Howdy Week's final night.

DOWN	TO GO	BALL ON

In the opening game of the 1973 football season, TR saw a new head-coach and a new season. Head Coach Derral Davis led the Riders into the McCollum game and a new season that he felt would "surprise a few people." Although the score ended in a 13-13 tie, TR did indeed surprise people and continued to do so until the season's end.

Season Opener Draws Stalemate

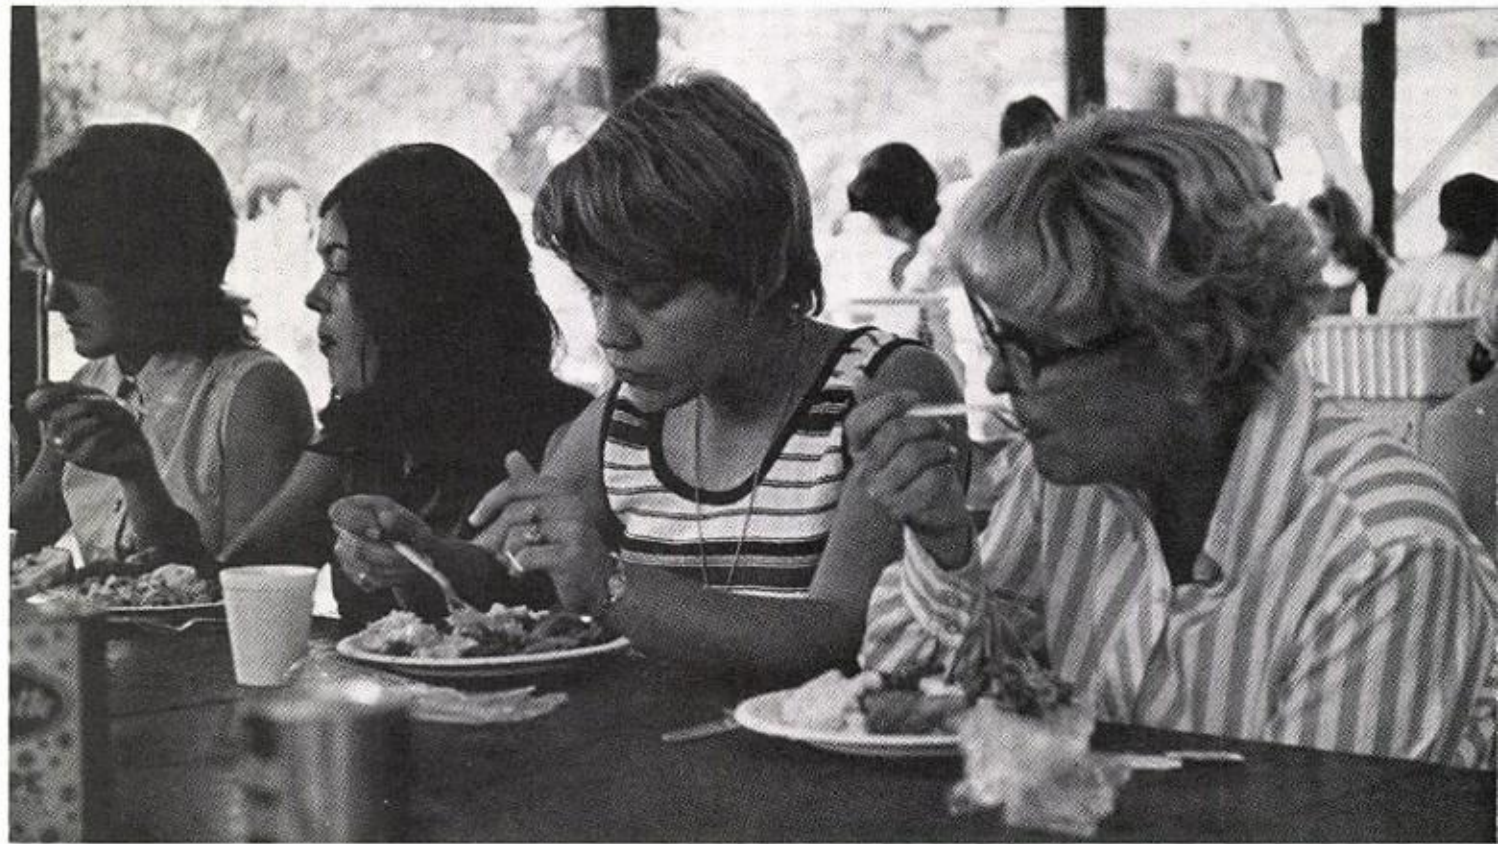

Faculty Indulges In Food, Fun, Games

Sausage, fried chicken, potato salad, kids, and teachers were the combination brought together at the annual Faculty Picnic. Although it drizzled, the croquet court was full; others occupied themselves with a game of horseshoes. A day when schoolwork was put aside, fun and relaxation were a welcome pastime.

Bill Marthes gives John Hierholzer a few pointers on the game of croquet.

Carol Griffith, and Mrs. Hennessey joined other faculty members in feasting on the food provided at the picnic.

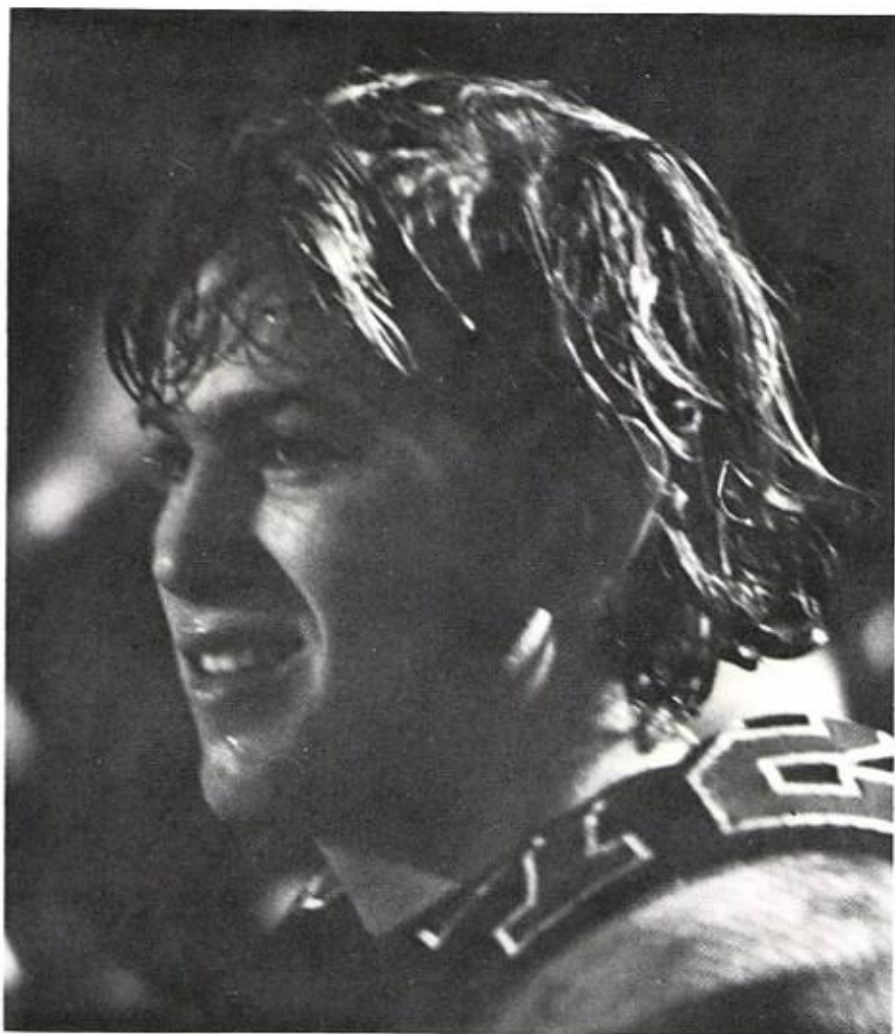

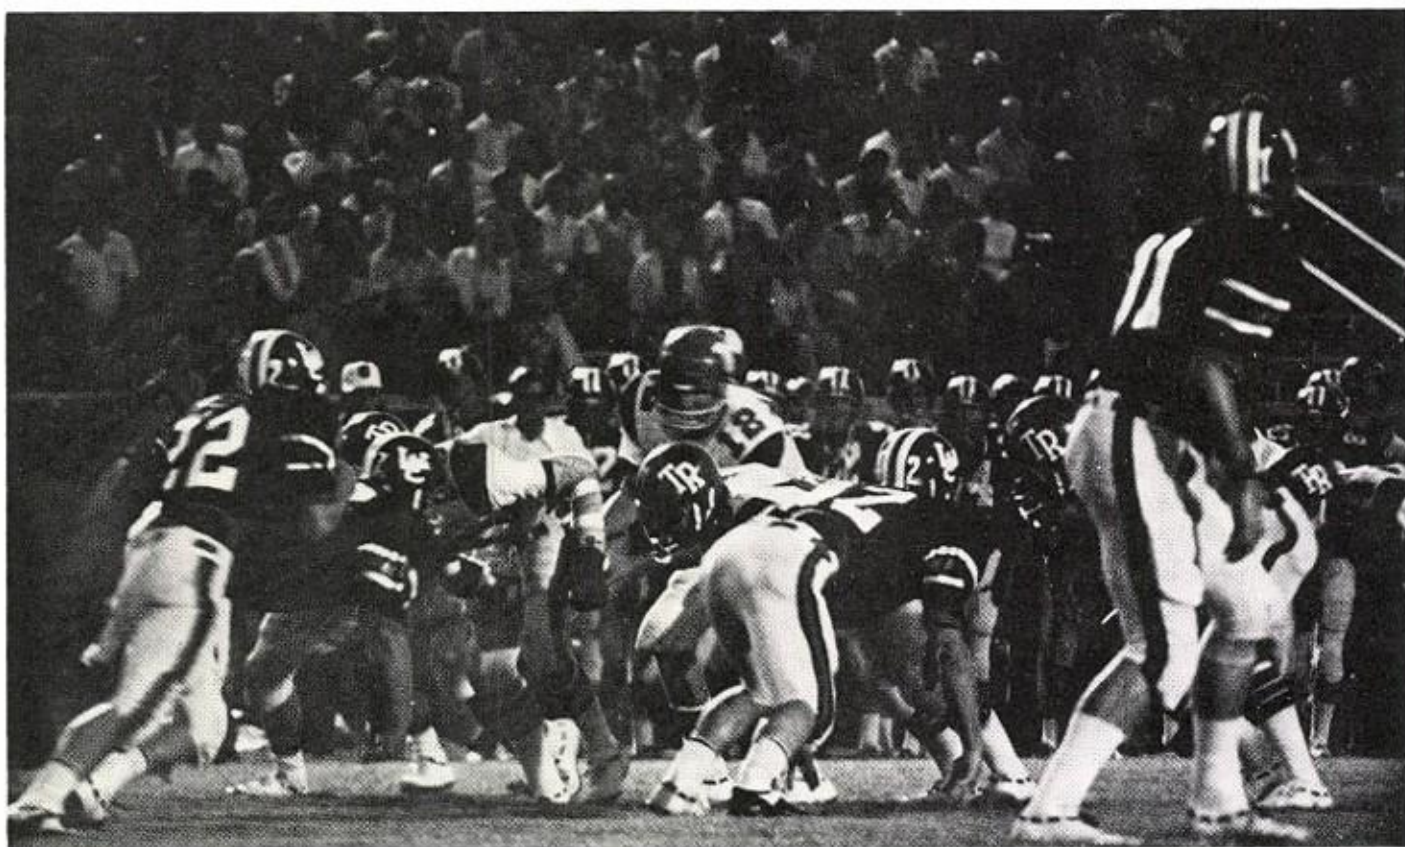

"Will he make it?" Everyone suspensefully watches Mr. Halber on the horseshoe court.

Vols Escape Riders After September Struggle

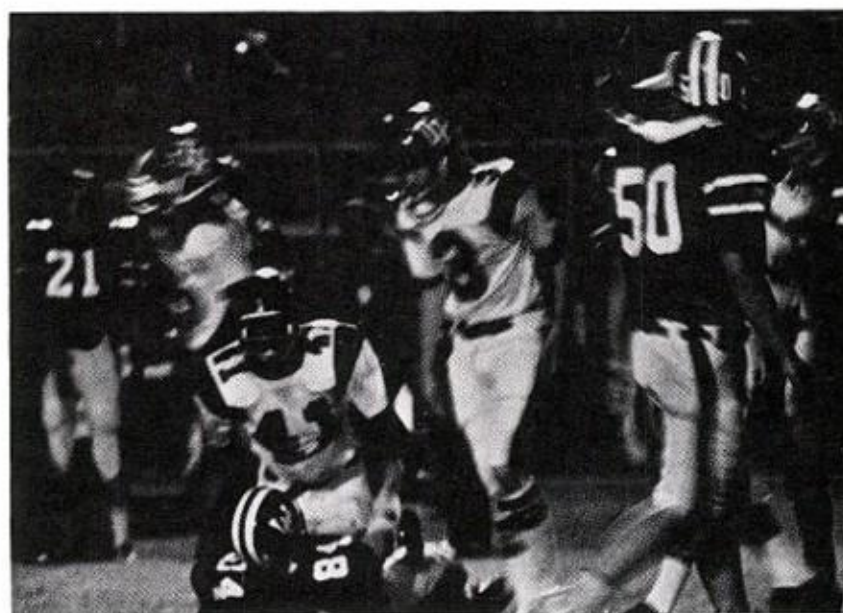

The Lee Volunteers . . . a powerhouse team . . . a tough team to beat. But victory and performance mean two different things. And though the final score read as a 14-7 loss, the challenge was there, and TR met it with a force that was unlike a team that was supposed to be in the cellar. The challenge was met, and the Vols barely escaped.

Churchill provided Roosevelt with its third game of the season; TR had yet to win a game. Though the Chargers had been rated above Roosevelt, TR played with the spirit that showed what kind of football team they could be. At the end of the contest Roosevelt had suffered a bruising 27-18 loss to Churchill.

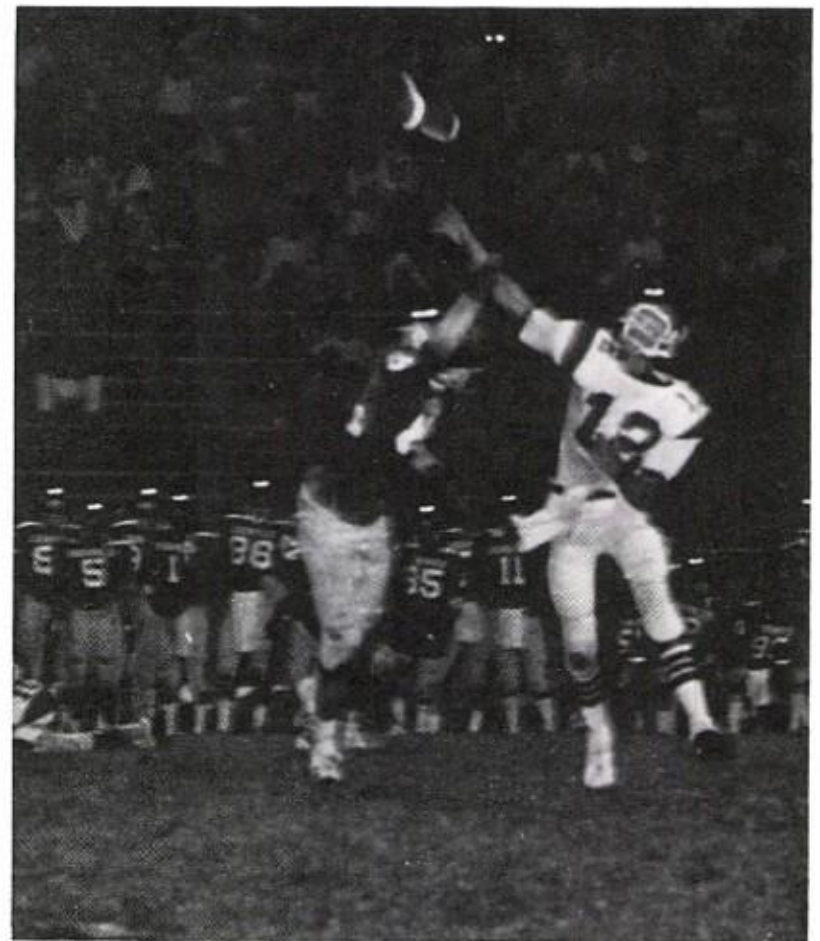

Chargers Take Riders In Pre-Season

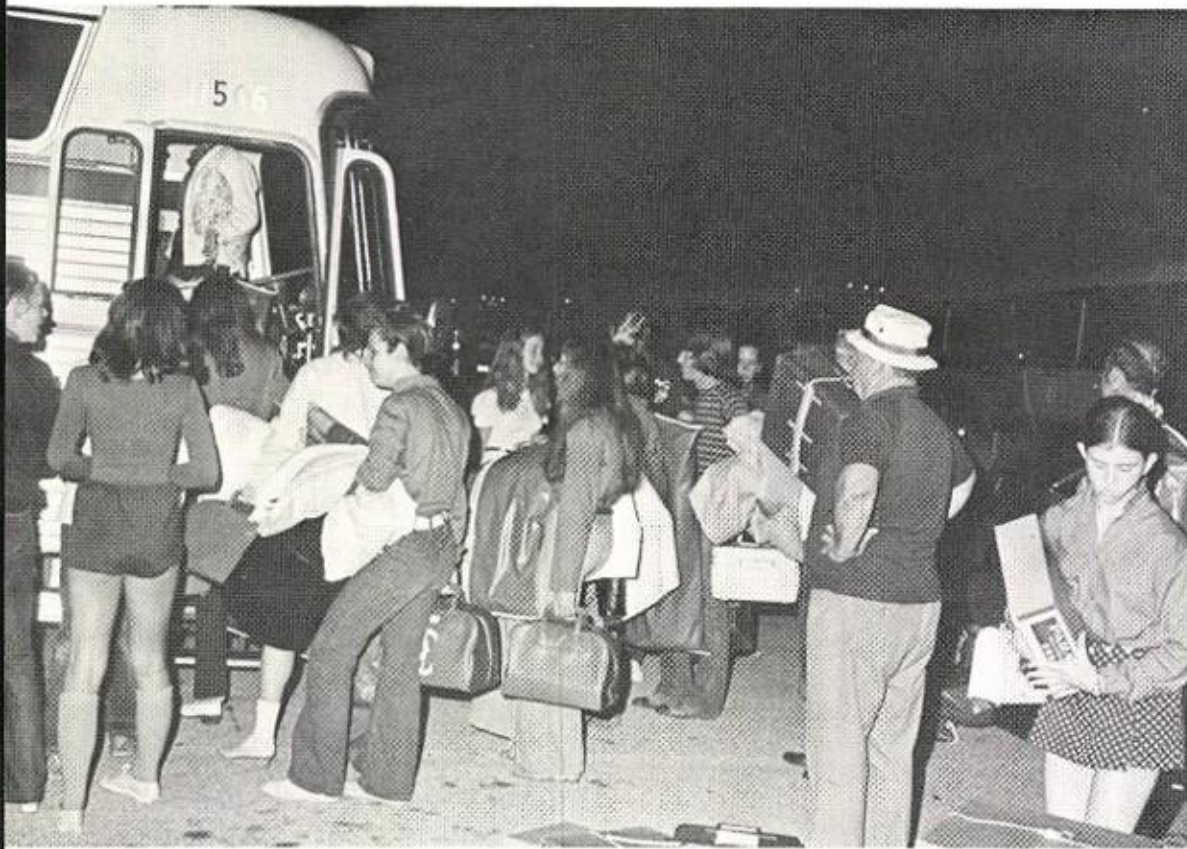

Cherokees Fall To Riders

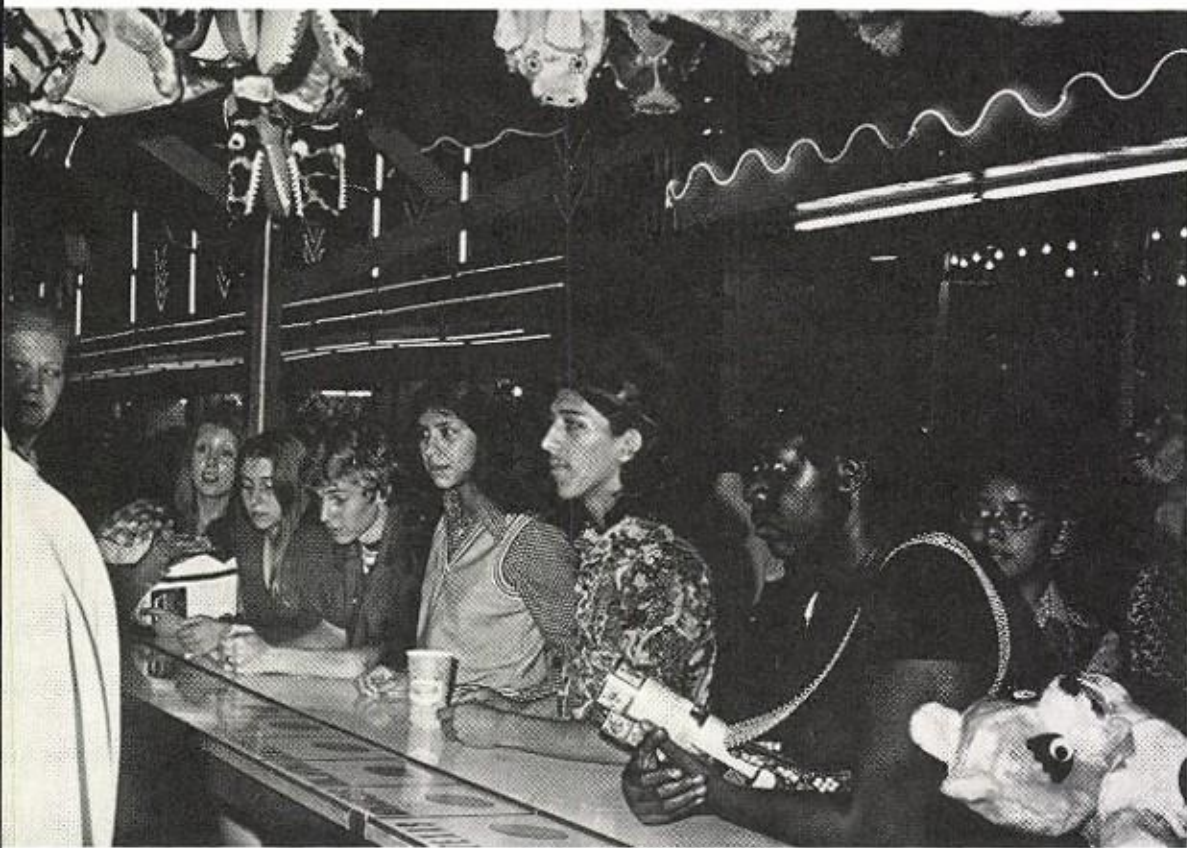

District play started off with a bang for the Riders as they eased by the Cherokees with a 24-21 win. Playing a very balanced offensive game, TR afforded few mistakes and tightened up on the Cherokee offense late in the game. It was a well played game, however, as the scoreboard shows. This victory was TR's first district win and more were to come.

Getting up at 2 a.m. isn't easy.

Patty Waits, Bonnie Nelms, and Melissa Shrum pause for a drink before their performance on the field.

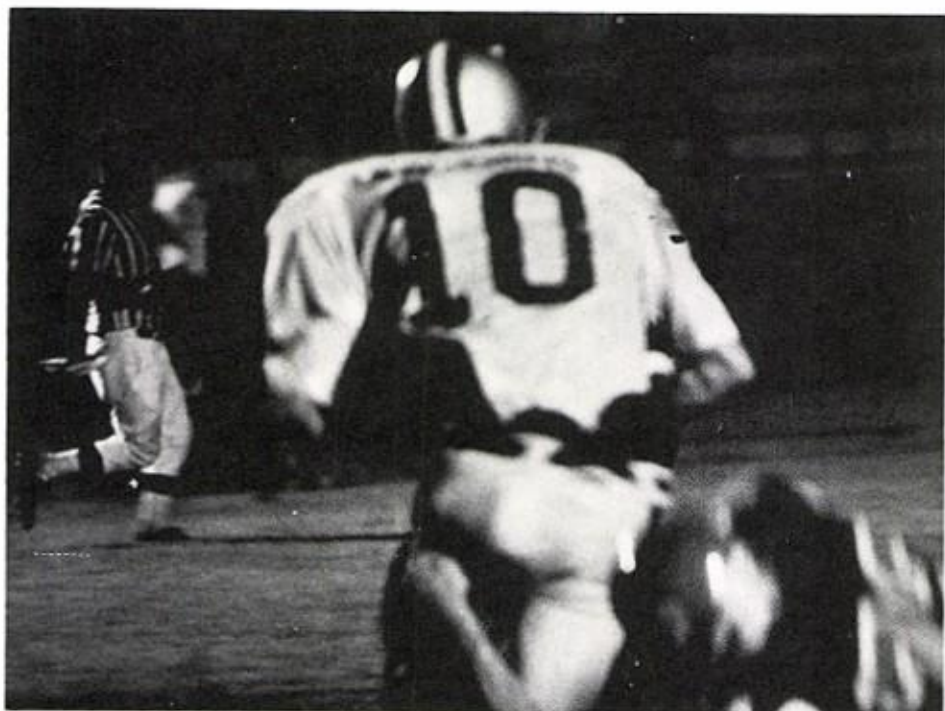

Band, Patriots Give Their Best At SMU Performance

Selected from bands and drill teams throughout the state, TR's marching band and Patriots performed at Texas Stadium. Being in Dallas for the SMU-Missouri game coincided with the State Fair and for students who took advantage of the situation, the trip proved to be a lot of fun.

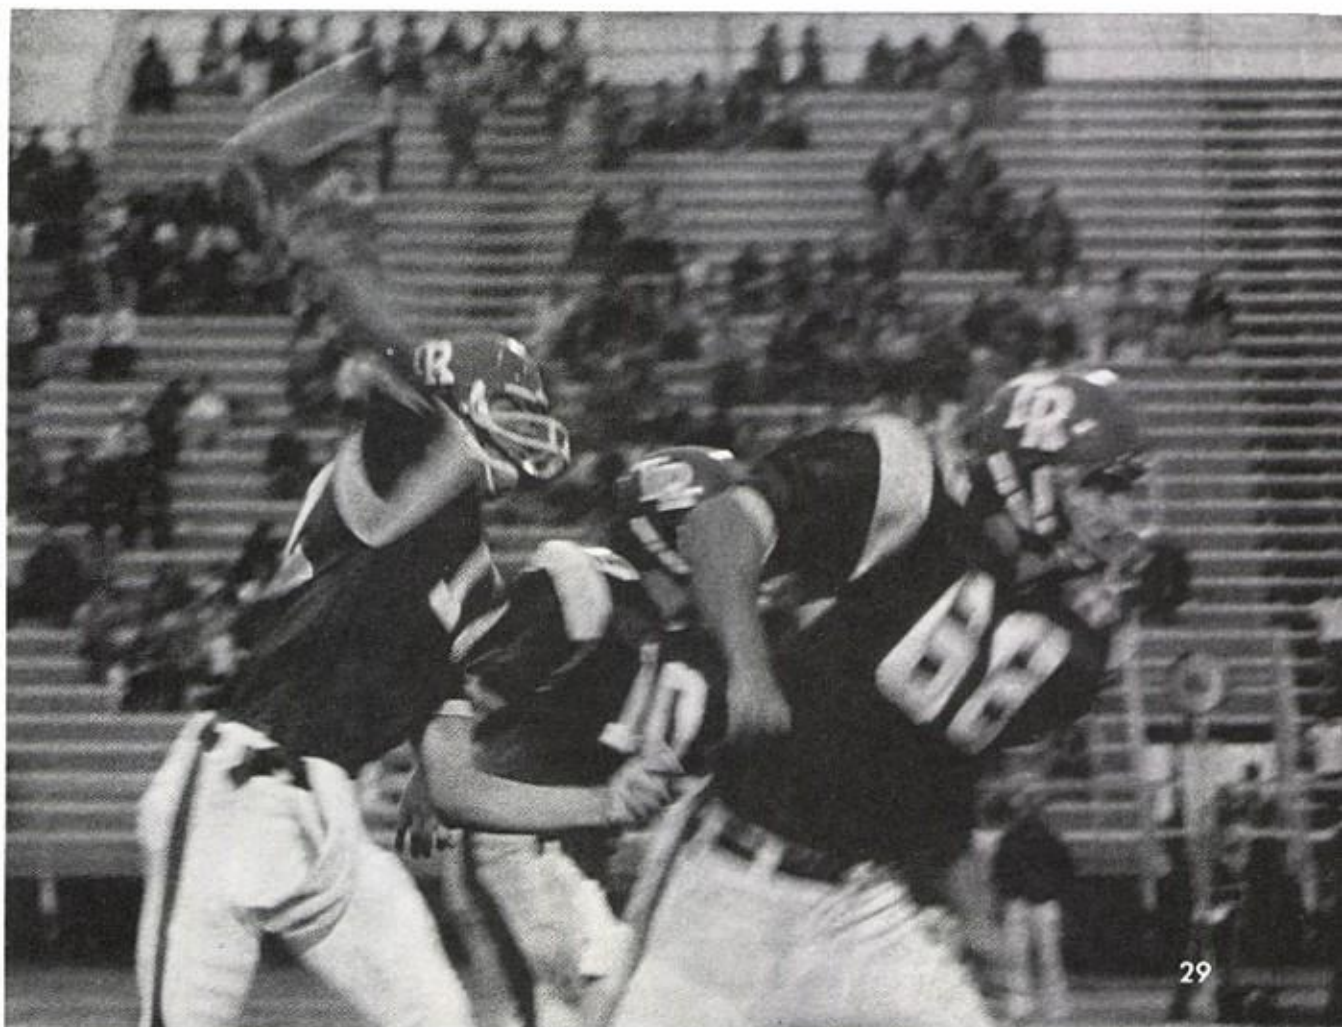

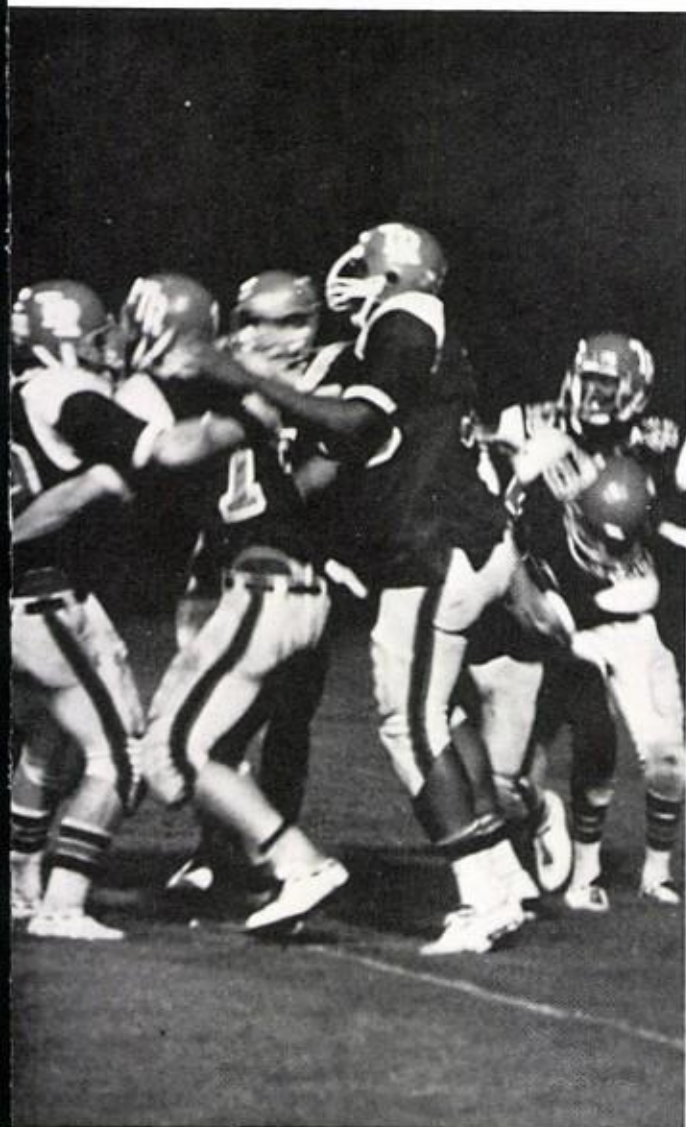

Roy de Leon, Mini Ibarra, Richard Miller, Vanessa Day, and Kim West attended the State Fair as soon as they got the chance. BELOW: Colonel Janet Wiegman gives Patriots last minute instructions before the show.

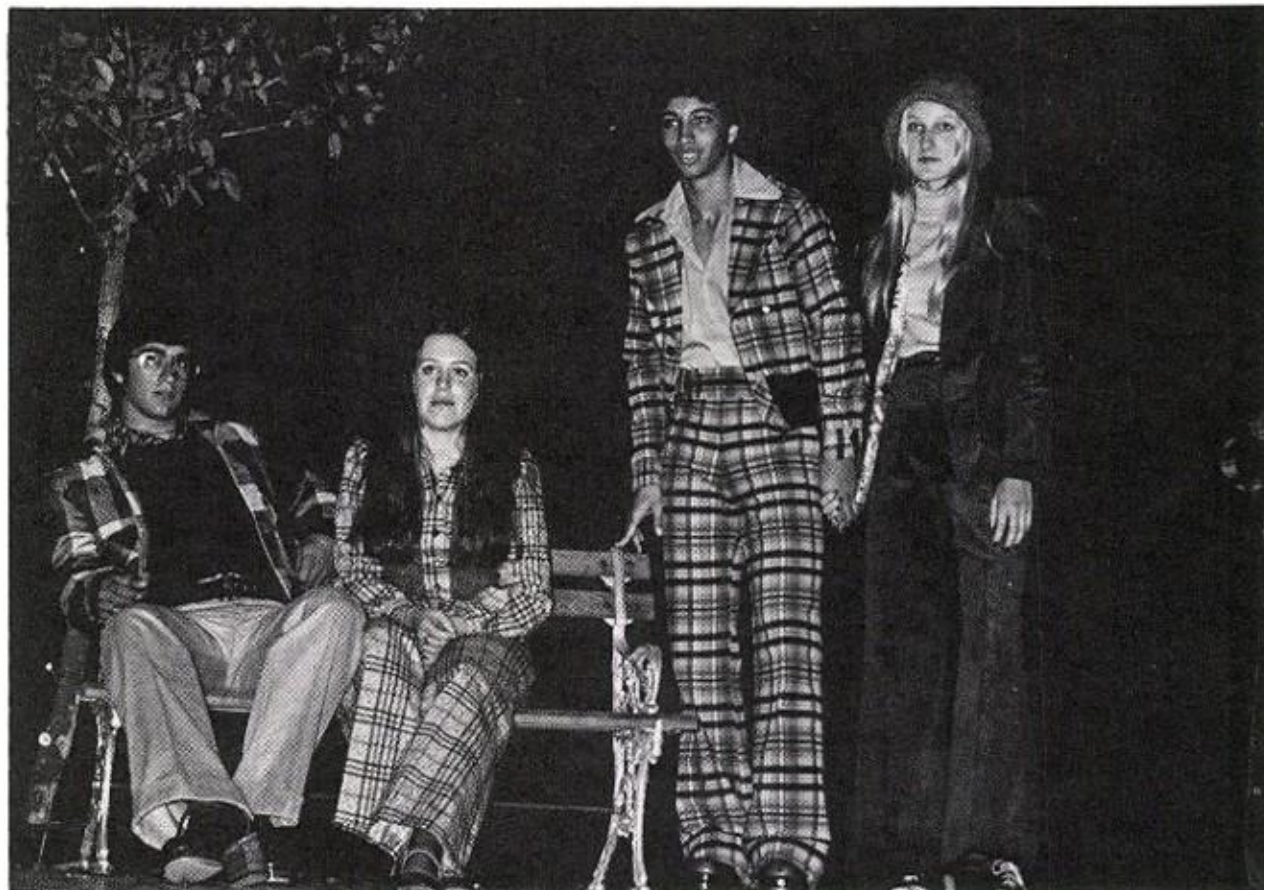

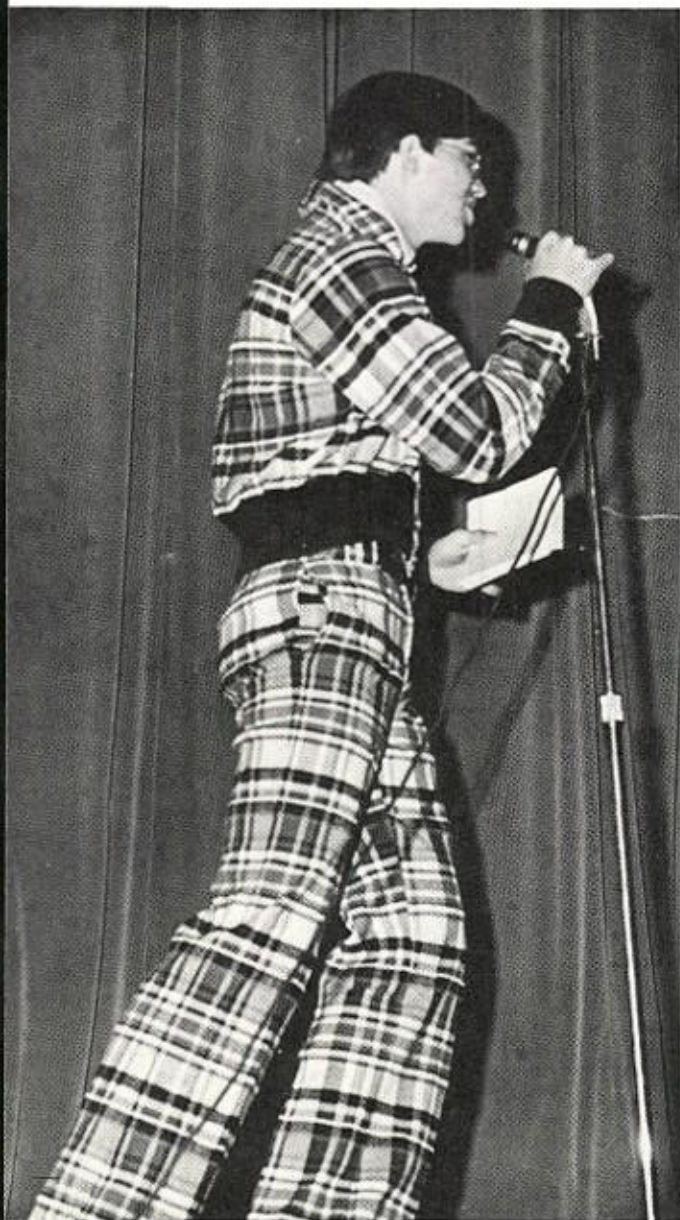

Riders Outlast Unicorns

Strong defense was the TR story after New Braunfels fell to the Riders 14-7. After an opening win in district play, TR entered the game with one thing in mind: Gaining another district win. Superb offense and a tough defense combined for the Riders and the result was the second district win in two games.

Dicky Rice, Beth Hughes, Allan Lee, and Sabrina Mercer prepare to walk on stage as (left) Armin Friedli waits to announce them.

Seniors Add Seasonal Touch To Present Fall Style Show

Autumn colors and scenery provided the setting for the senior style show which presented a fashionable array of clothing modeled by various students. Staged was TR's version of the dating game with Beth Lee of Churchill choosing Carl Gross as her date and Mark Leopold, also a Charger, selecting Jonni Davis. However Carol Griffith kept everyone in suspense until she chose mystery guest Bill Dante of KTFM as her escort.

Carl Gross and Lon Bason laugh at Ray Wilson's attempt to answer a question, but (left) Beth Lee decides on Carl Gross for a night on the town.

Anxious to get back on solid land, Jim Smith gets a head start on everyone.

Biology II Students Venture To Corpus Christi, Aransas Pass

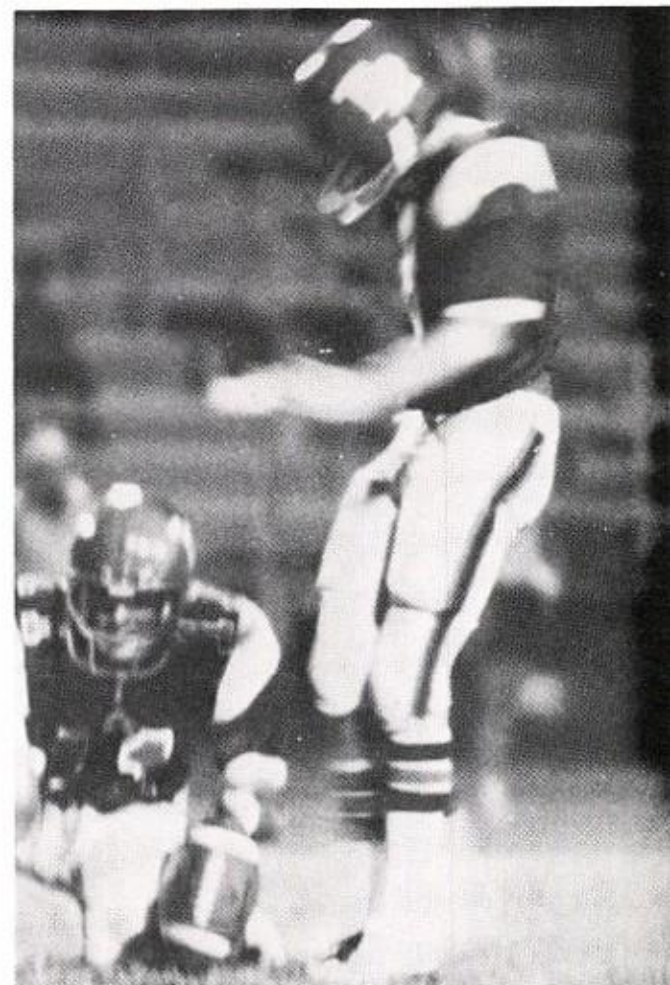

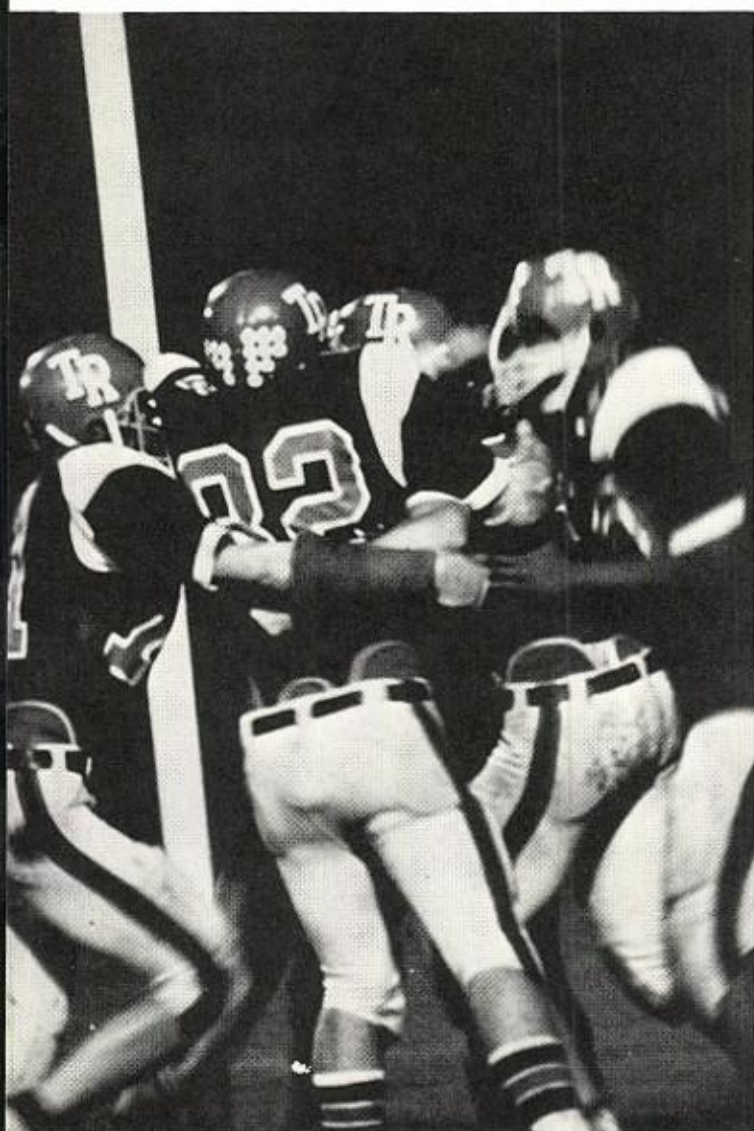

Exploring the Texas coast and taking a trip to the Aransas Pass National Wildlife Refuge awaited forty eager Biology II students who traveled to the beach in search of marine specimens. Besides these activities, planned by sponsors Iris Wilkins and Cal Eichler, the group also went skin diving and even surfing.

Riders Rip Rattlers

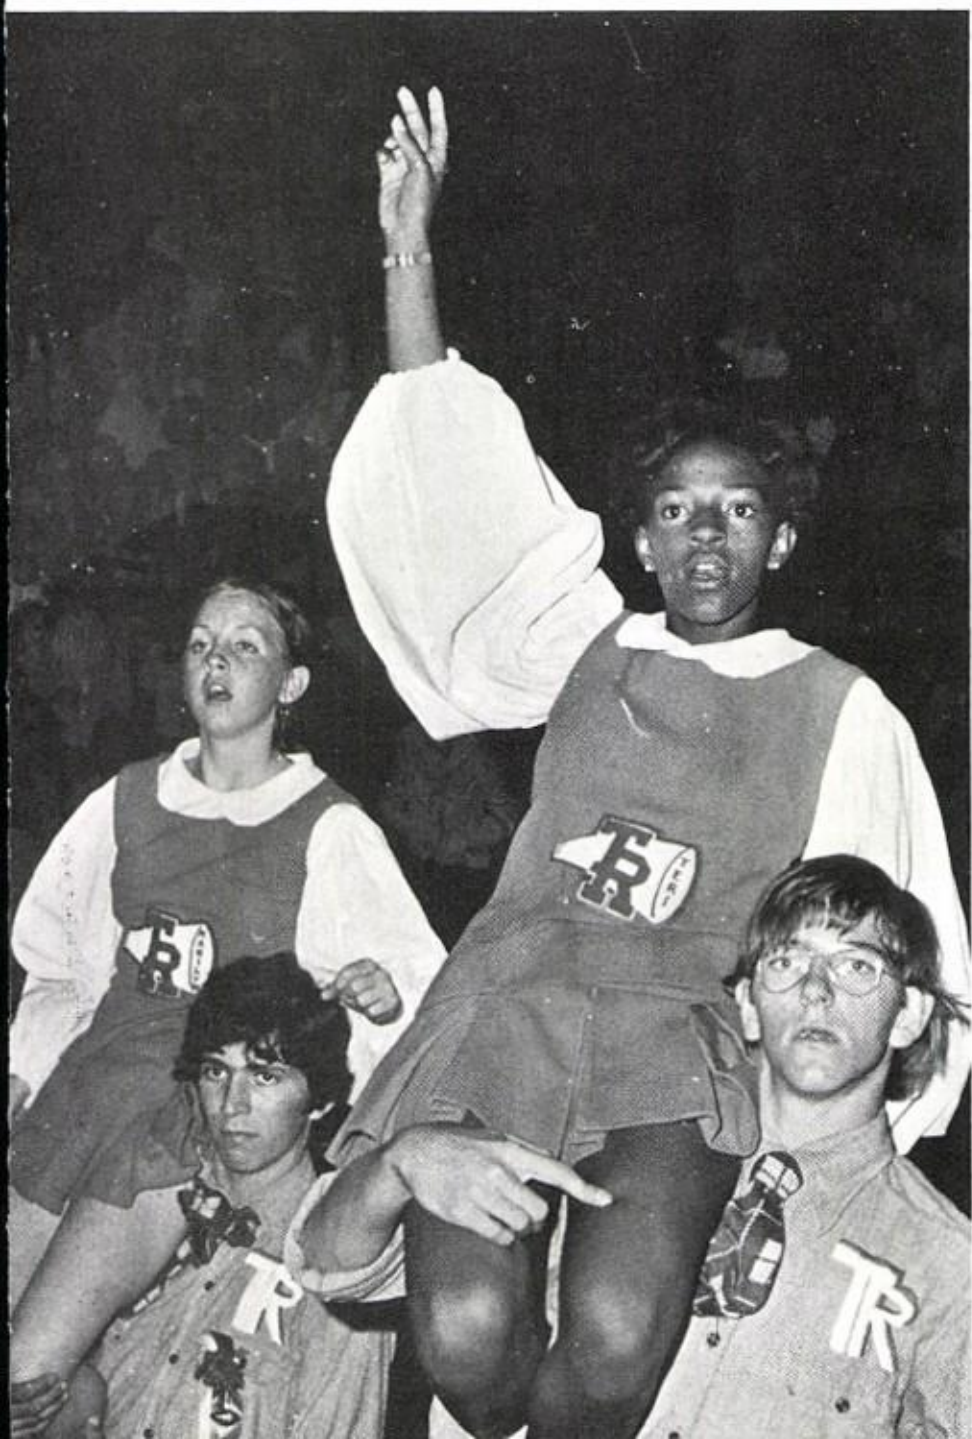

After two straight district wins, TR faced their third district match with a good opening season. The Rattlers were tough, but four quarters saw TR battle to a 14-12 win. Another well played offensive game as well as a strong defense gave TR the edge that resulted in victory.

Elected for their outstanding spirit, the five seniors set up equipment at football games, handled the Big Stick, and promoted enthusiasm. ABOVE: Lon Bason, Mark Passmore, Frank Kuhn, Ralph Delgado, and Billy Dobry celebrate a touchdown.

Cheerleaders Build Spirit, Pride In RRC

Initiating spirit at football games was a big part of the cheerleaders' job, but they also attended baseball, basketball and other athletic events.

Spirit Week Sparks Rider Pride And Enthusiasm

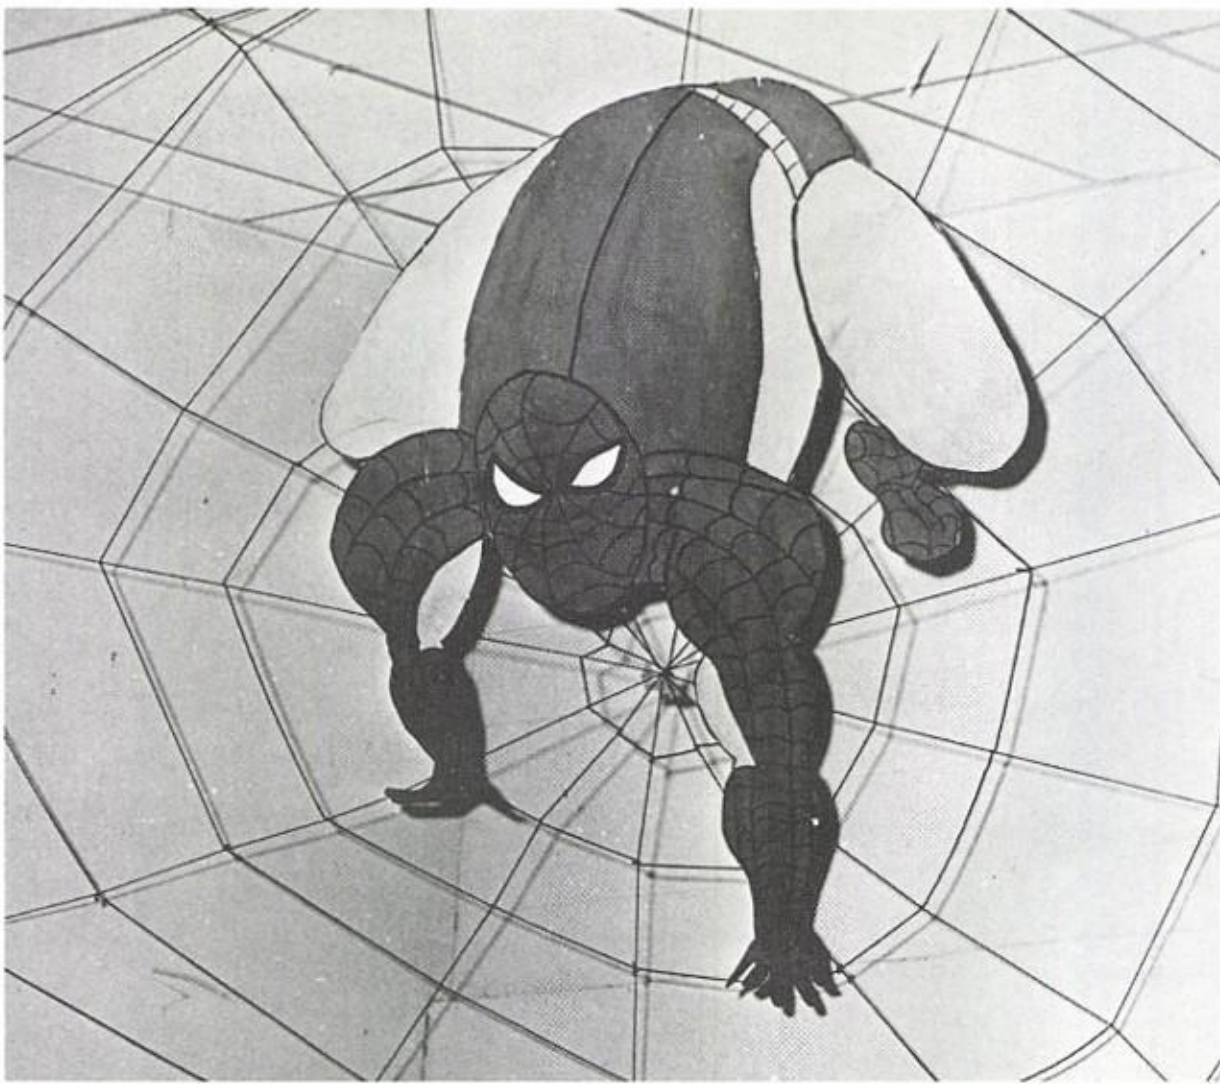

Car painting contests, mum sales, and hall decorations were part of the enthusiasm shown by Rider fans during Spirit Week. A time to create spirit for the game against Mac, the student body got together to show the football team that all of TR was behind them.

A big part of Spirit Week, Teddy smiles proudly over the junior class hall.

Frank Kuhn and Rick Ramirez put in their efforts to help out the senior class with the cafeteria.

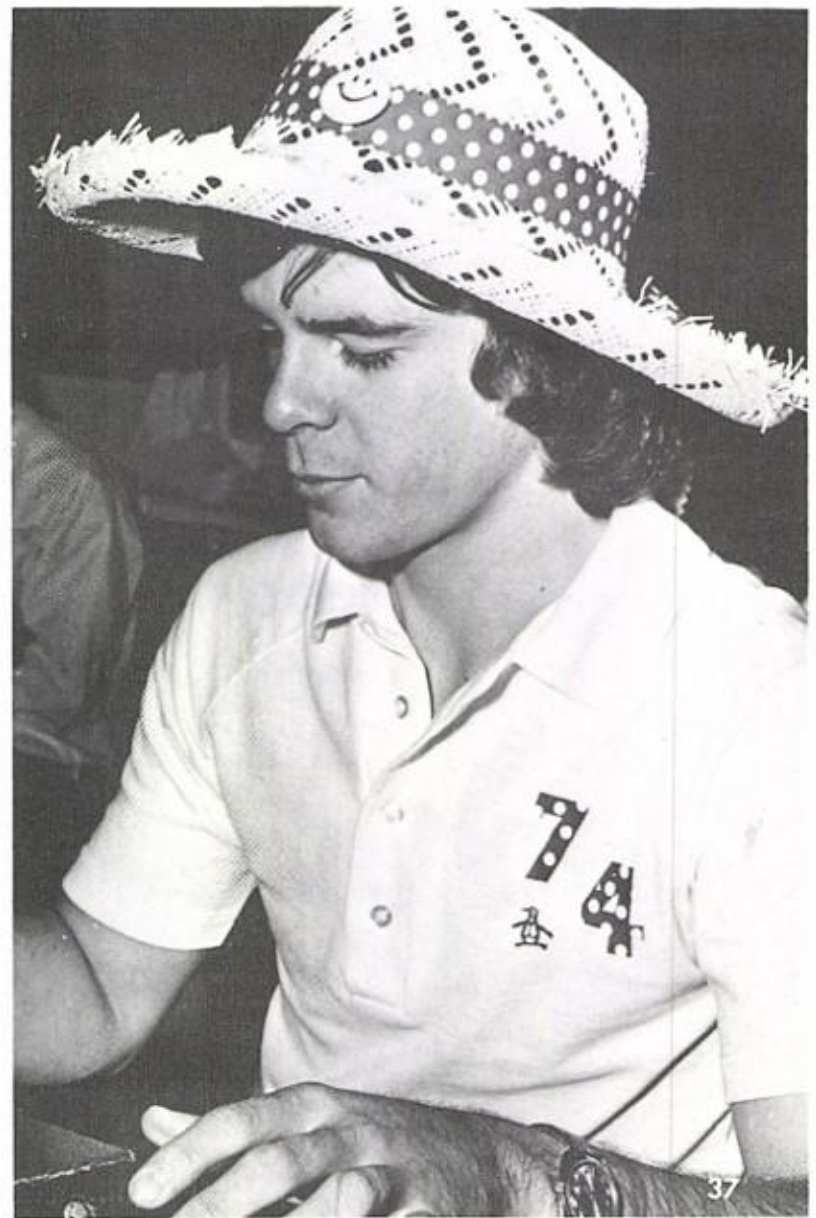

Artwork like this Spiderman helped the seniors win first prize for the class decorations.

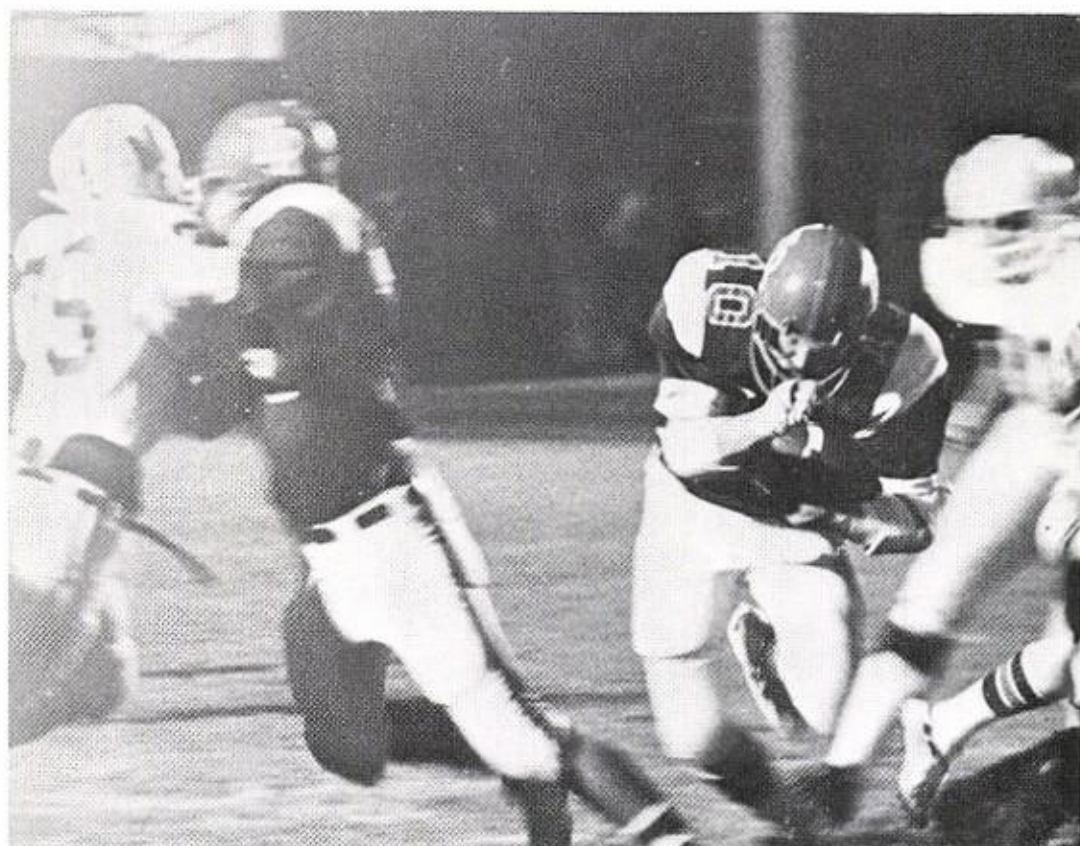

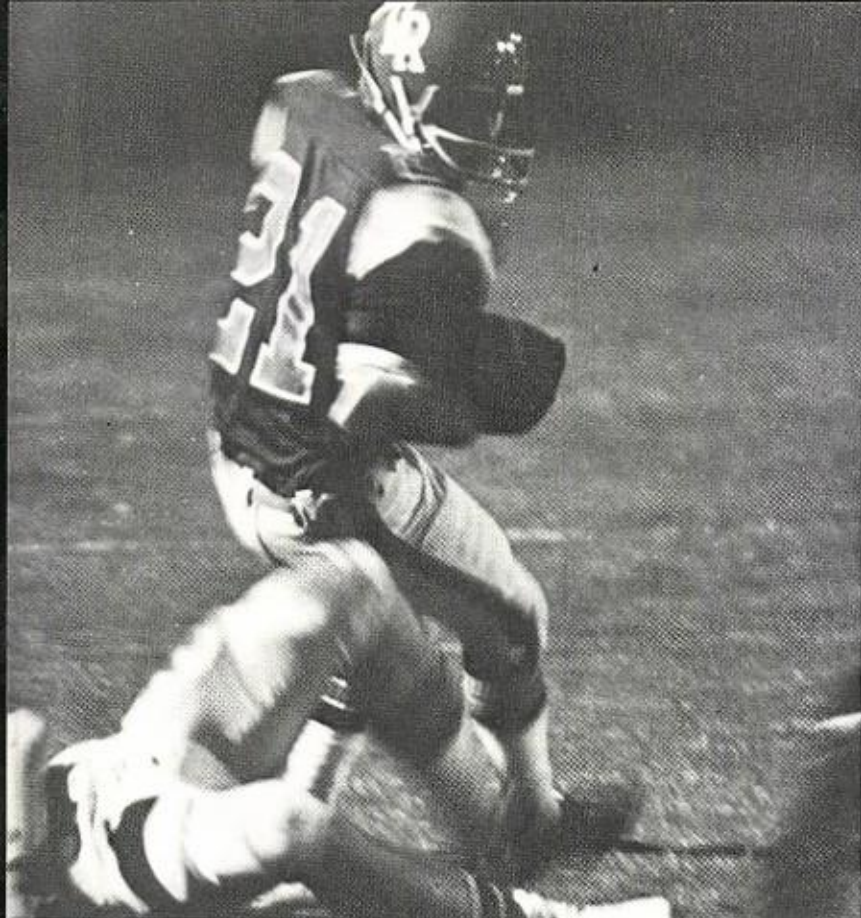

On hat day Liz Melton and David McGee made sure everyone knew they were spirited Riders.

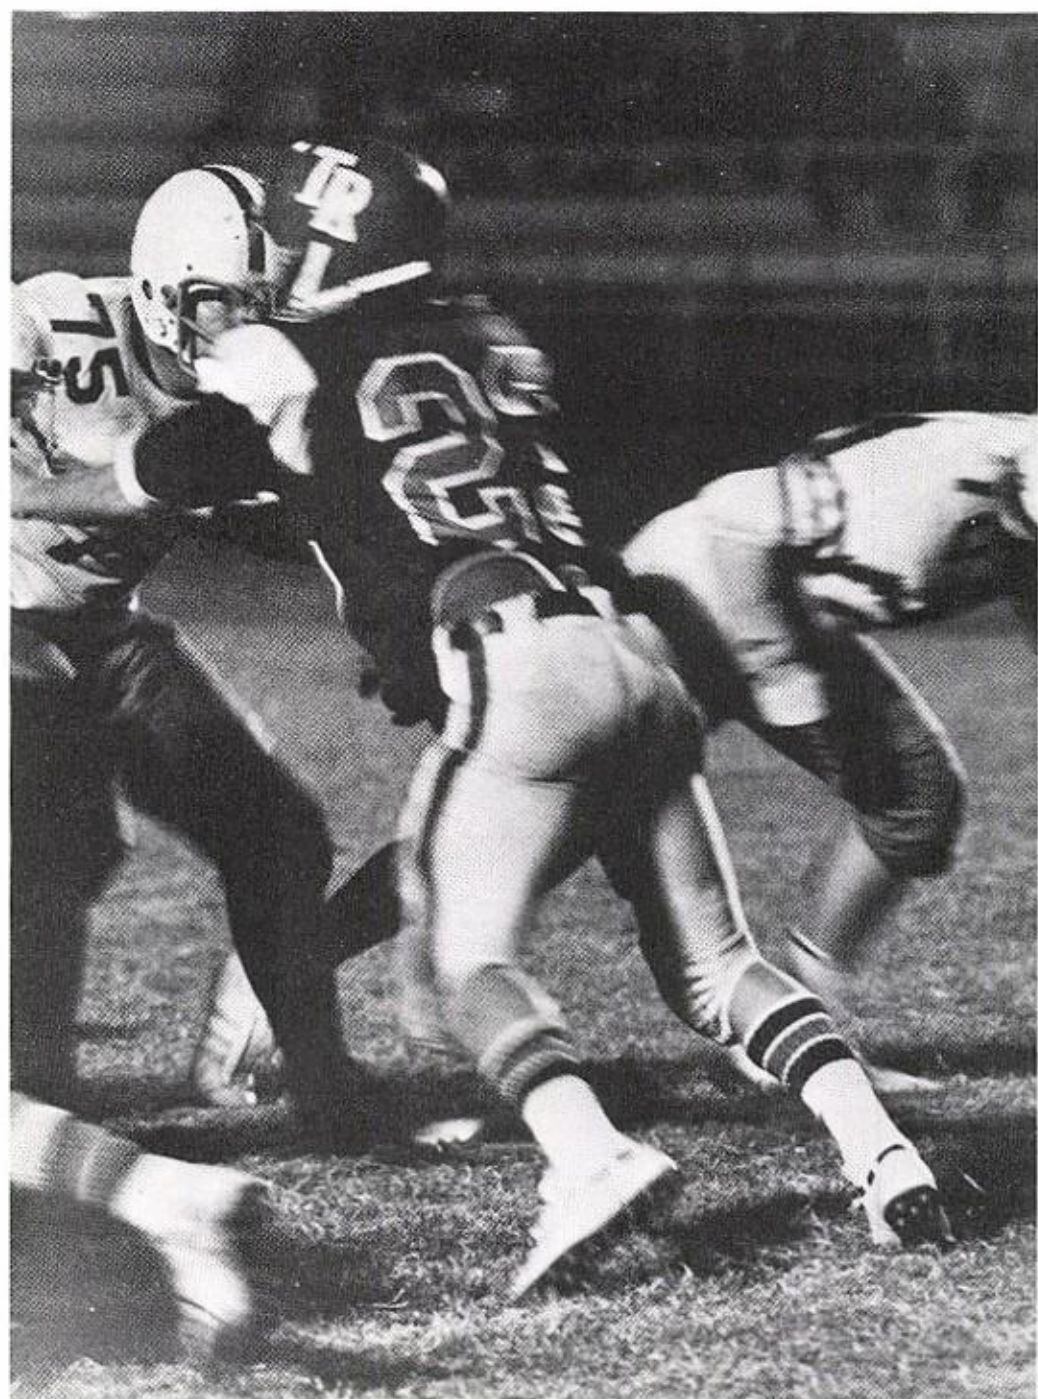

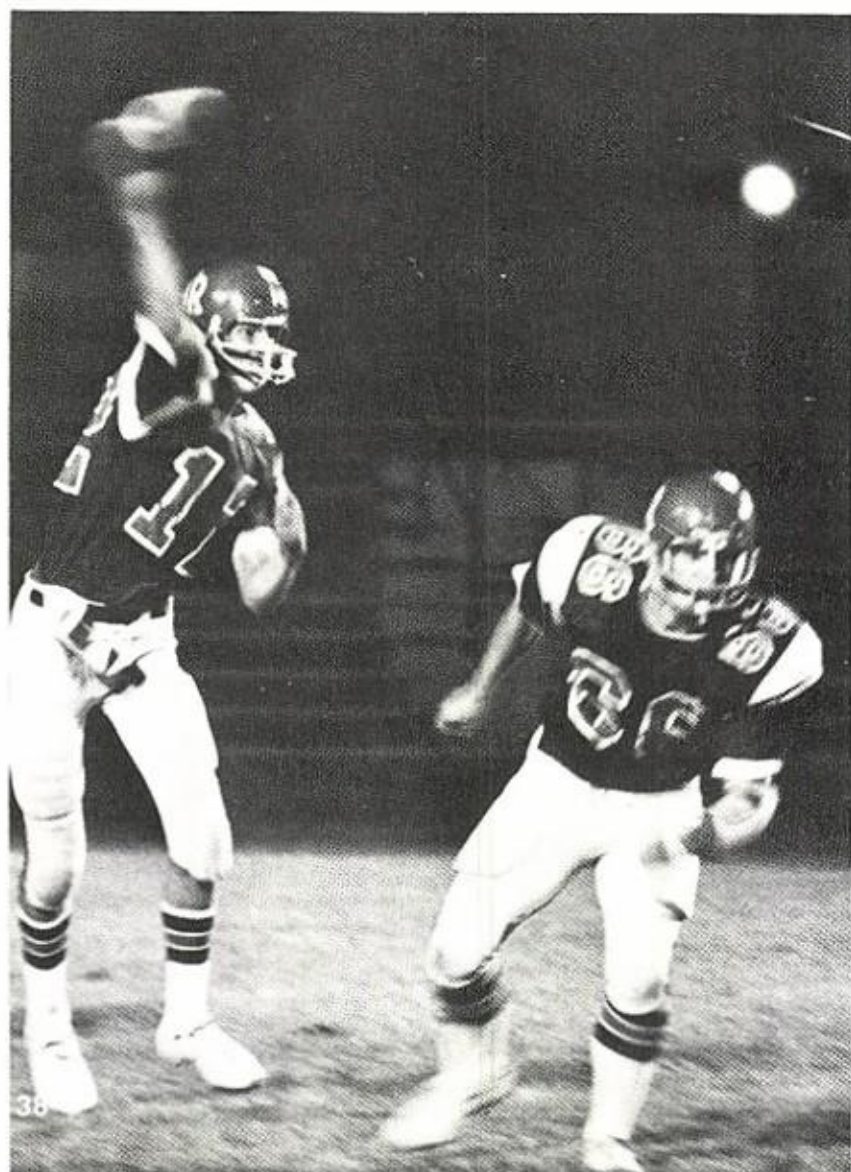

Senior dress-up day was a big day for Mike Schulze.

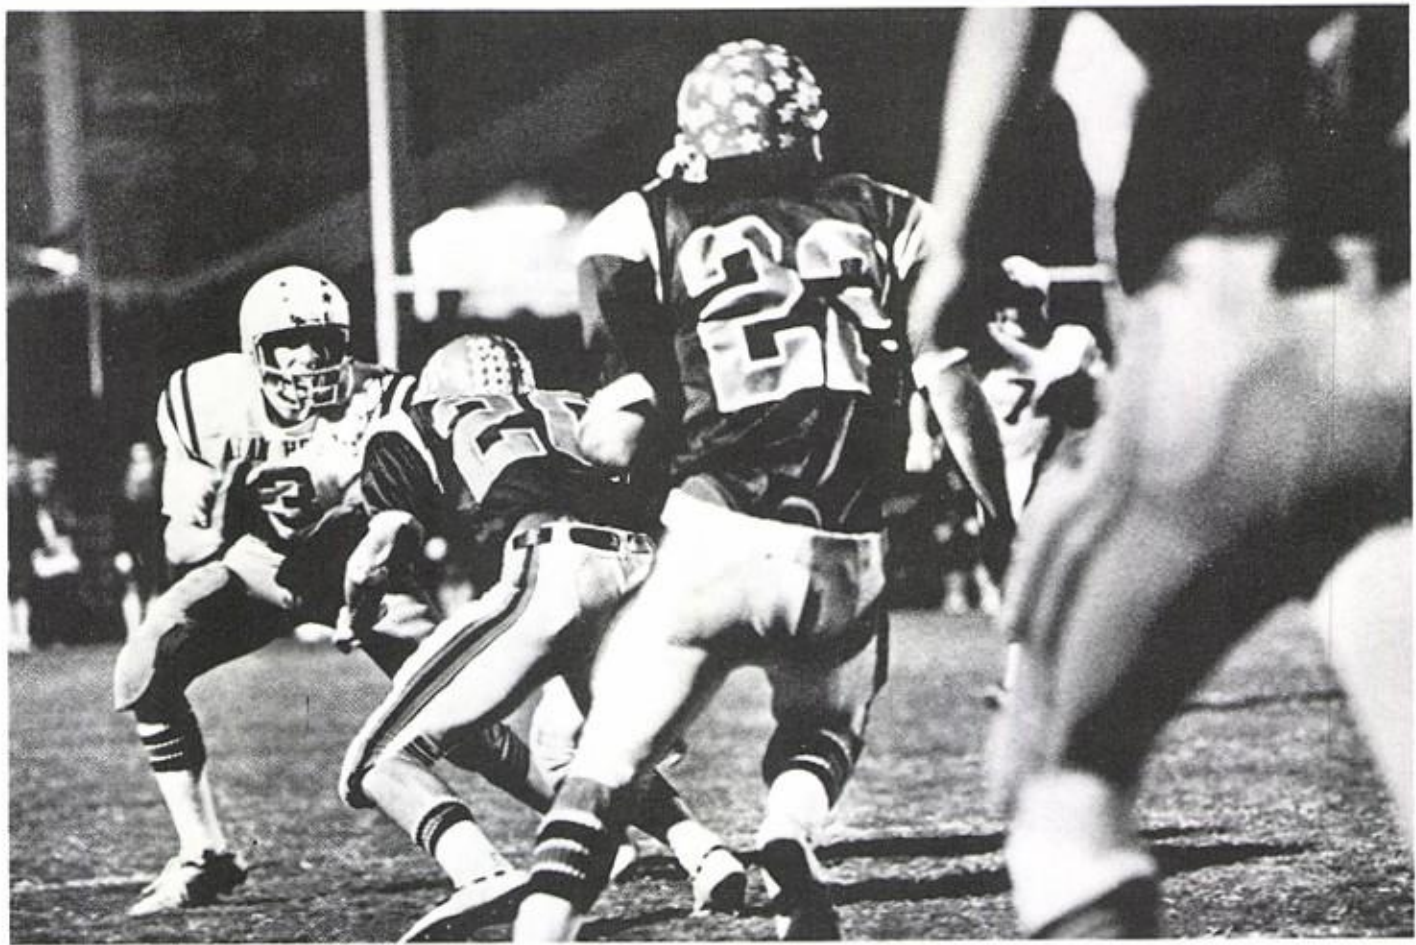

Rider's District Hopes Dampened By Owls . . .

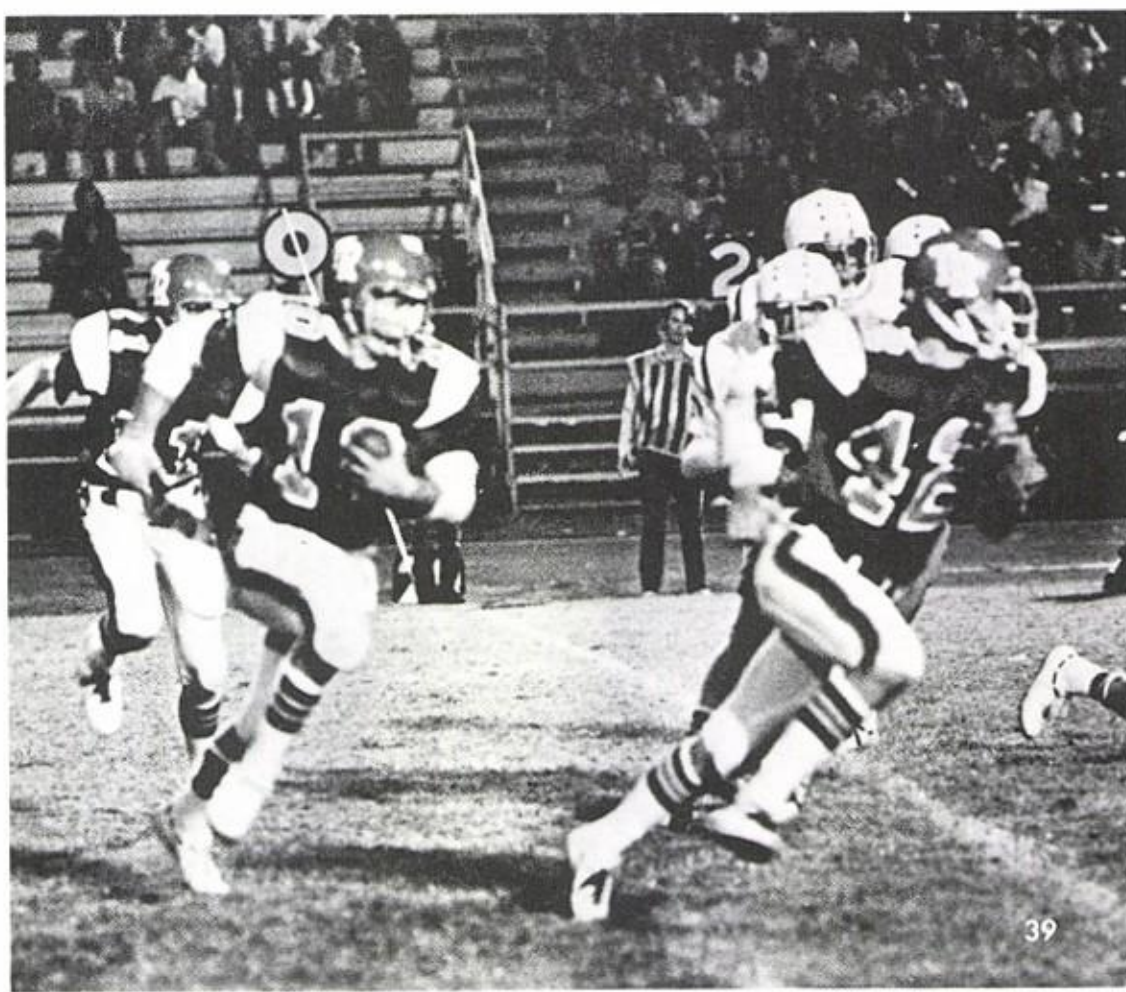

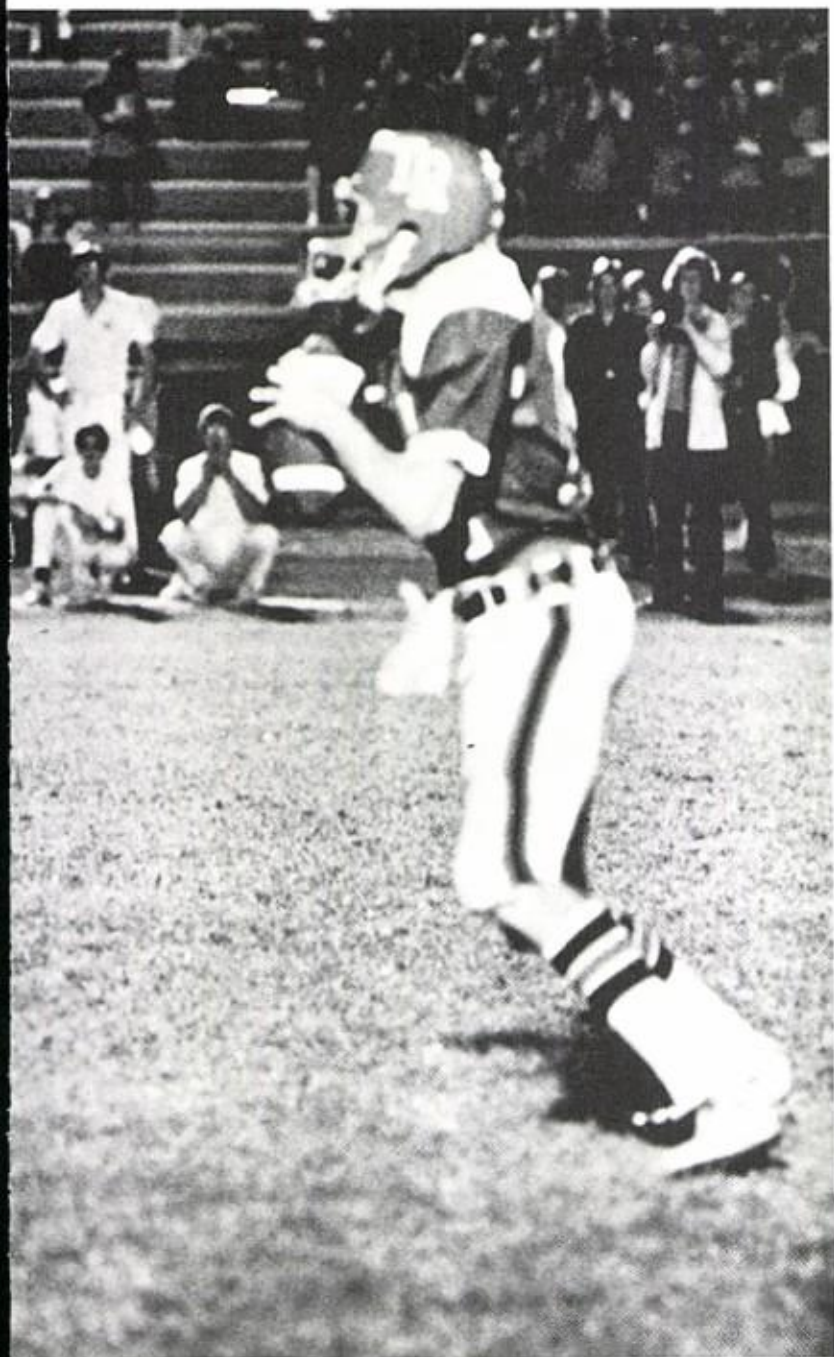

. . . and soaked by the Brahmas. So, district hopes were drowned. Out-powered and out-manned by Highlands, TR still played with marked determination. However, the MacArthur game ended on a different note. It was an upset . . . and numerous errors contributed to the loss of one hard fought district contest.

Perhaps because it was the last game of the season, or because it was just one more game, that the Riders played the way they did that night. A final win was a good thing to see either way. Mules are known to be stubborn and this was no exception as a dedicated Rider squad pushed and pulled to a welcome 15-14 win. And to new Head Coach, Derral Davis, it was more than the end of a season — it was the beginning of an era.

. . . "From This Point Forward" . . .

To try something new is often frowned upon due to tradition and possibly a superstition here and there. That sounds kind of out-dated and for today, I'm sure it is. However, the time comes when new things must be accepted, either by choice or by necessity. In this case — both.

Thus an acceptance is in order at Roosevelt — that of a new head coach. The loss of Win Baggett left a vacancy there and the district quickly began searching and interviewing . . . Finally, Derral Davis was elected as TR's new head coach. When asked how he felt as far as coaching at TR was concerned, he had this to say: "The first week that I arrived here, I don't think I had ever been treated so well. And now it's even better than when I got here. One of the many pleasing things about the kids here at Roosevelt is that they put out a lot of effort. They seem to thrive on competition. The way I see it, from this point forward, all competition will get better and better. My goal is to have a superior all-around athletic program compared to any in the state, and of course, to win the state championship in football."

Cagers Exemplify Winning Tradition At TR

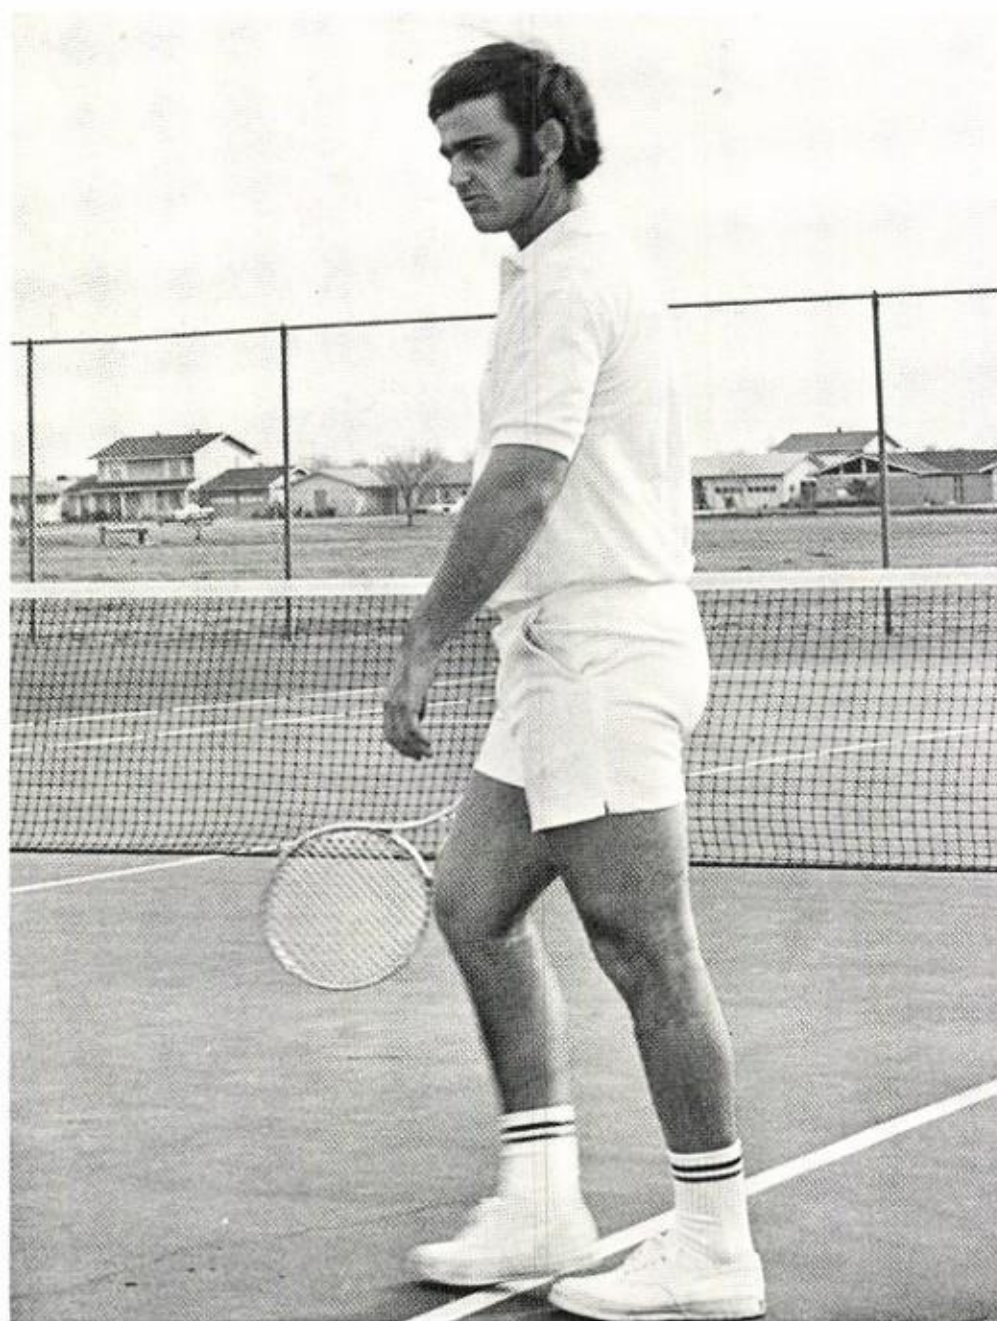

Leaning on the speed and accuracy of a well balanced basketball team, the Riders went back and forth with the Unicorns in a game that showed a pair of excellent counterparts; each doing its best to gain and keep control of the ball. The struggle ended in a TR loss, but New Braunfels took notice of the team they defeated, and the Unicorns seemed to be glad the game was over. TR, however, looked only ahead at games to be played, and with practice, to be won.

"Dracula" — Screaming Success

Cast: Dracula — Lane Blaquiere
John Harker — Steve Hockett
Dr. Seward — Mark Passmore
Lucy Seward — Delores Hutchings
Reinfield — Tim Gaertner
Miss Wells — Sherri Small
Professor Van Helsing — Randy Bruno

Presented with all the blood-curdling scream of a horror show, "Dracula" also had the sensational episode, romantic sentiment, and happy ending of a melodrama. Lane Blaquiere, cast in the title role, and Delores Hutchings as Lucy were convincing, while the original piano and organ music composed by Travy Remmert played throughout the show. Encompassing hard work and dedication, "Dracula" was truly a successful show.

Pair Of Victories Boosts TR Cagers

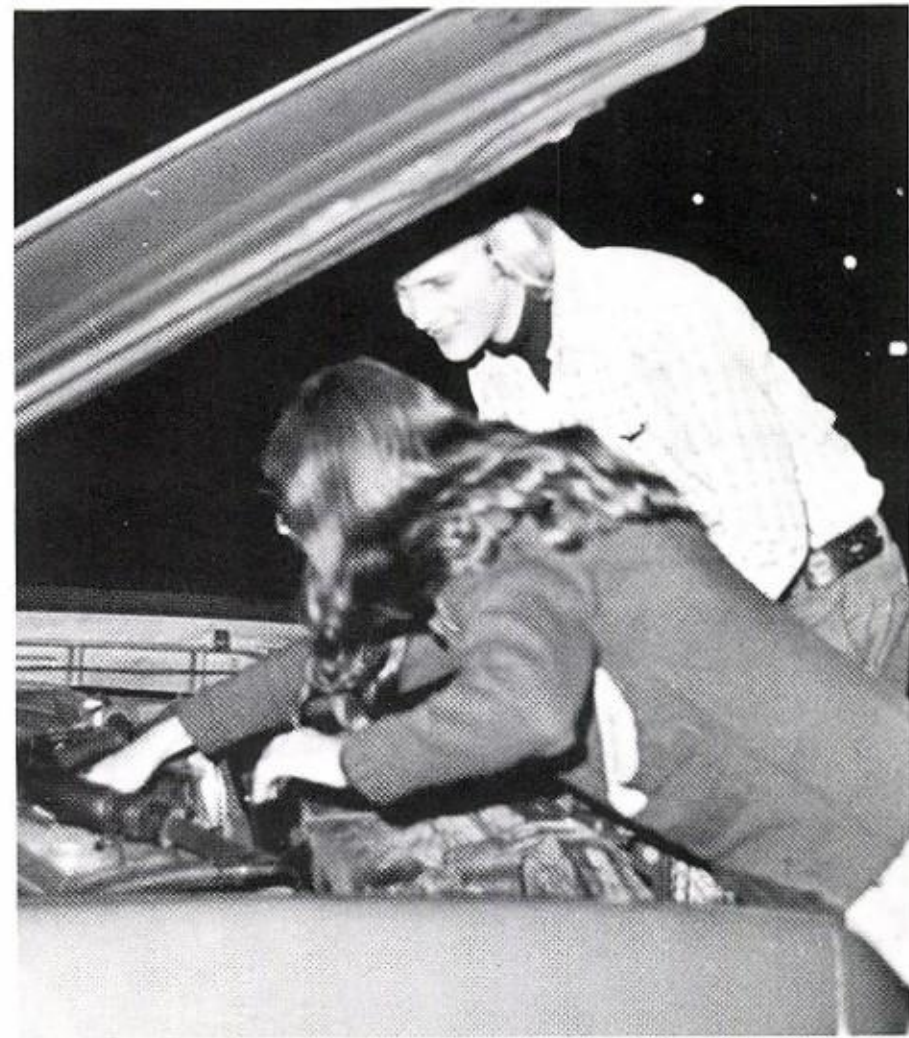

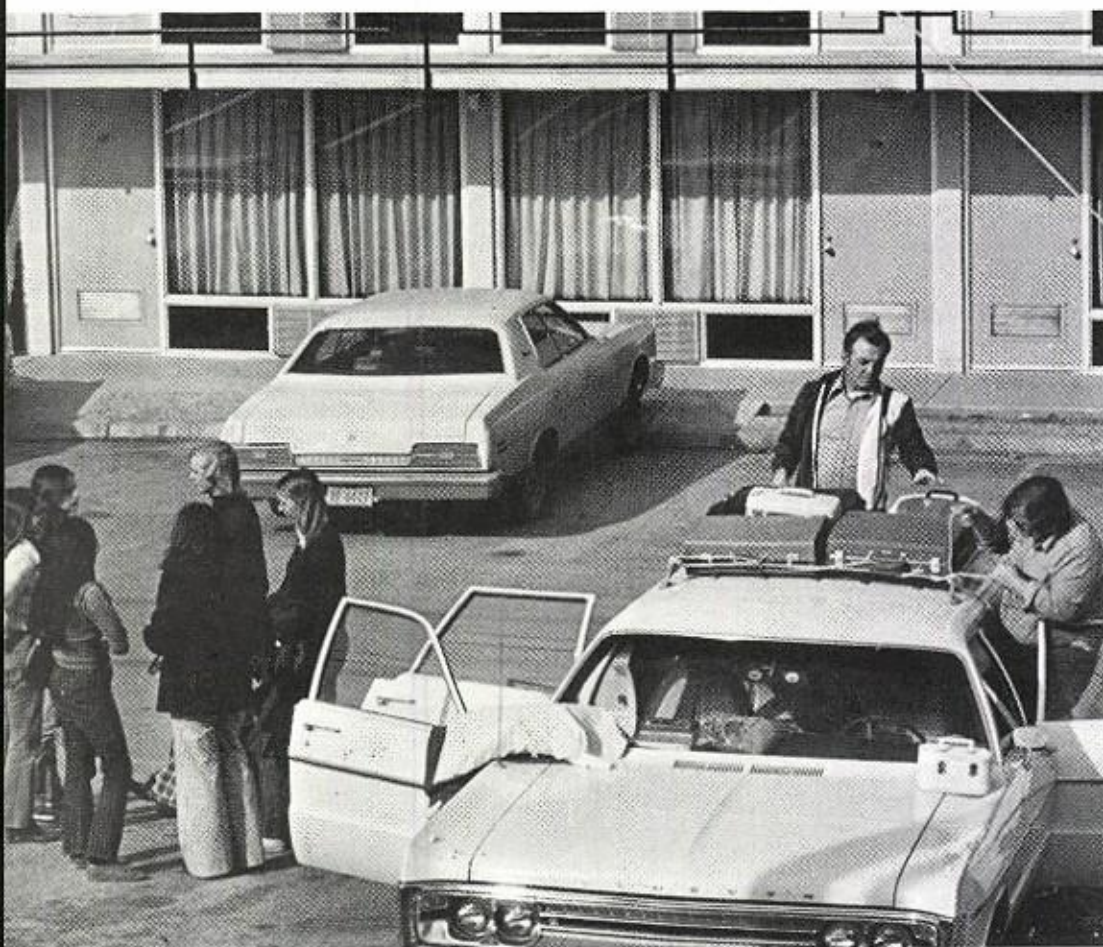

District play went well for the Riders when it afforded them two consecutive wins over San Marcos and Sam Houston, each boosting TR's standings. San Marcos provided the Riders with a hard played basketball game that ended, after four long quarters, with another victory under the belt for the TR cagers. The next district game against Sam Houston, however, was even more difficult to win. Aggressiveness prevailed as both teams fought hard against the backboards and gave sparingly any leeway to their opponents. Lasting it out and playing good basketball TR defeated the Cherokees of Sam Houston.

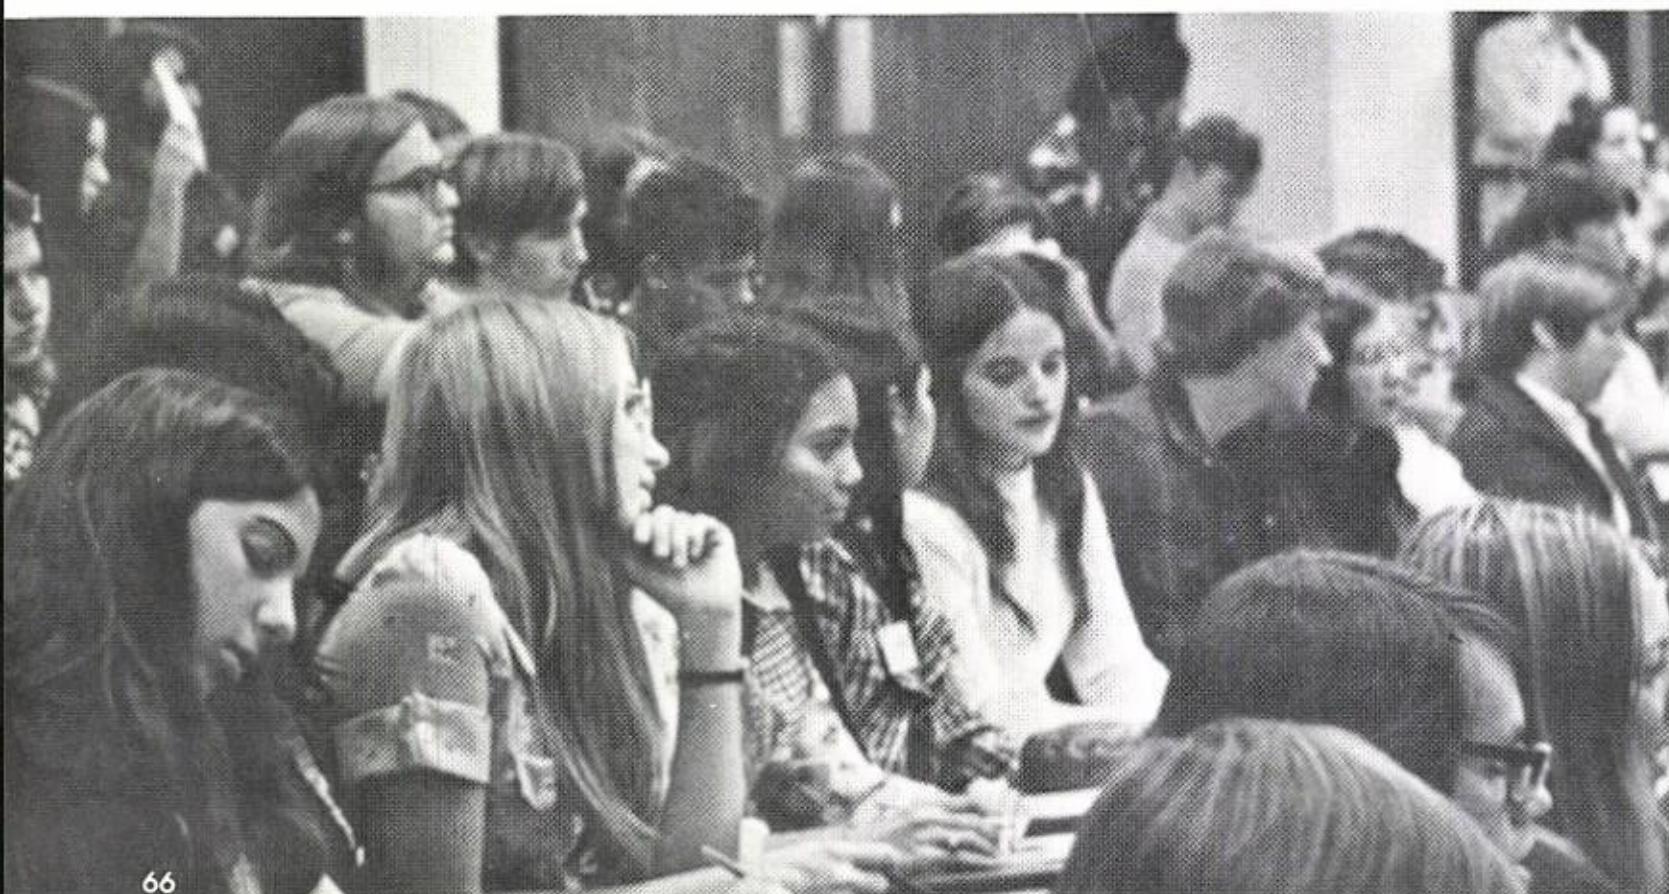

Traveling to Denton, Texas for a state-wide convention, students on the journalism staff attended a three-day workshop which covered every aspect of journalism. Comparing ideas in yearbook trends, students also examined ideas in newspaper lay-out and photography. The workshop gave the staff an in-depth look at publications throughout the state and the nation.

Journalists Travel To State-Wide Seminar

Arriving for the three-day workshop, the staff plans the day's activities.

According to Steve Hockett and Jan Opella the first step in getting home is a car in running condition.

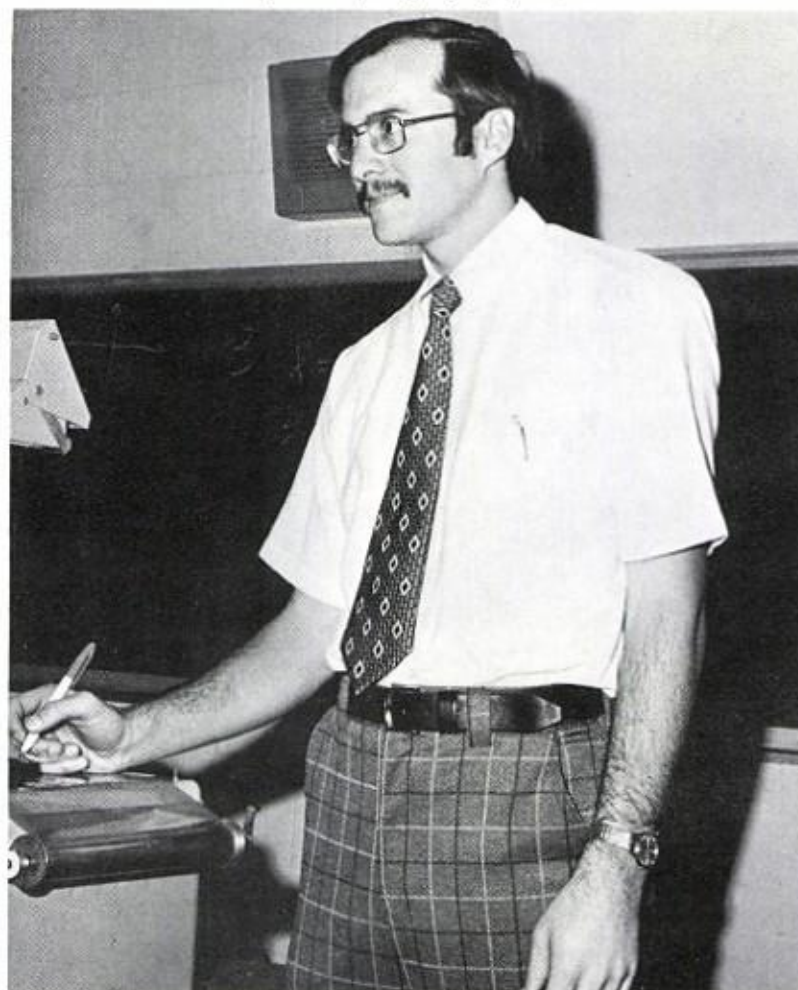

Most of the day consisted of attending workshops at Texas Woman's University.

TR Cagers Split Two In District Play

After two straight district victories, TR faced the Seguin Matadors at Blossom Stadium in the second meeting of the two teams. In the first game early in the season, Seguin handed TR a narrow loss but the tide turned and, in an important second game, the Riders put it all together and defeated the over confident Matadors. The win over Seguin brought up the next game on the cager schedule, and that game saw TR battle the Highlands Owls in a really good basketball game. The district champion Owls found TR to be a worthy opponent and it wasn't without hard play and determination that Highlands found victory. The Riders played good, fast basketball but Highlands managed a few extra buckets that meant a win for the Owls.

Cagers Finish Victorious And In Second Place

Another week of basketball saw TR split another pair of games and finish up the season with a win. Against the Mules of Alamo Heights, the Riders started a little slow and it seemed as if all the breaks in the game would fall for Alamo Heights. Nothing appeared to go right for the TR cagers in that game, and so the second to the last game of the season was a loss. Then the last game rolled around, and TR played it with the determination, spirit and enthusiasm of a winning team. As in football, the basketball team put everything they had into the last game of the season and finished up with a final victory and a second place standing in district play.

J.V. Shares First Place Berth In District

The 74 basketball season was a rewarding one for the Junior Varsity. Long hours of work and hard practices trimmed and tempered the J.V. cagers and enabled them to work their way to a 23-5 season record and a tie for first place with Mac in district play. It was quite a battle for the district crown as the two teams ended with 9-1 records and possibly a few frustrations here or there.

Sagamore Explores Creativity

Using as its base the theme "The Many Faces of Rough Rider Country" Sagamore staff members placed idea upon idea to build a colorful yearbook. Techniques such as placing everything in order of event were carried over to this year's book. Yet the creativity and imagination of the staff allowed for new effects such as special photography for division pages and a photographic cover.

Getting ID's stamped for the Sagamore was a must. (L-R) Lisa Waters, Judy Bragg, Robin Shaw and Roxanna Bustamante.

Outlook Adds Supplement

In an effort to get more of student writings into print the staff of the Outlook published the "Little Stick" as a literary supplement. Printed once every quarter, the "Little Stick" contained artwork and poetry from all grade levels. Prose and poetry of the highest quality went into the Outlook, which was published in the spring. Material going in either publication was chosen by a board of editors comprised of Cindy Copeland, Katie Hennessy, and Nancy Ugalde.

Importance of photographers in a journalism department is self-evident. Without photographers there would be no way in which to record the history of TR; no way in which to capture the beauty of one single moment. This year's photographers were capable of doing all these things. The work of these leading photographers Jan Opella, Mike Cogliandro, Randy Bruno, Jim Russell, sports editor Tim Cassler and John Oestreich is shown throughout this book.

Big Stick Changes Format

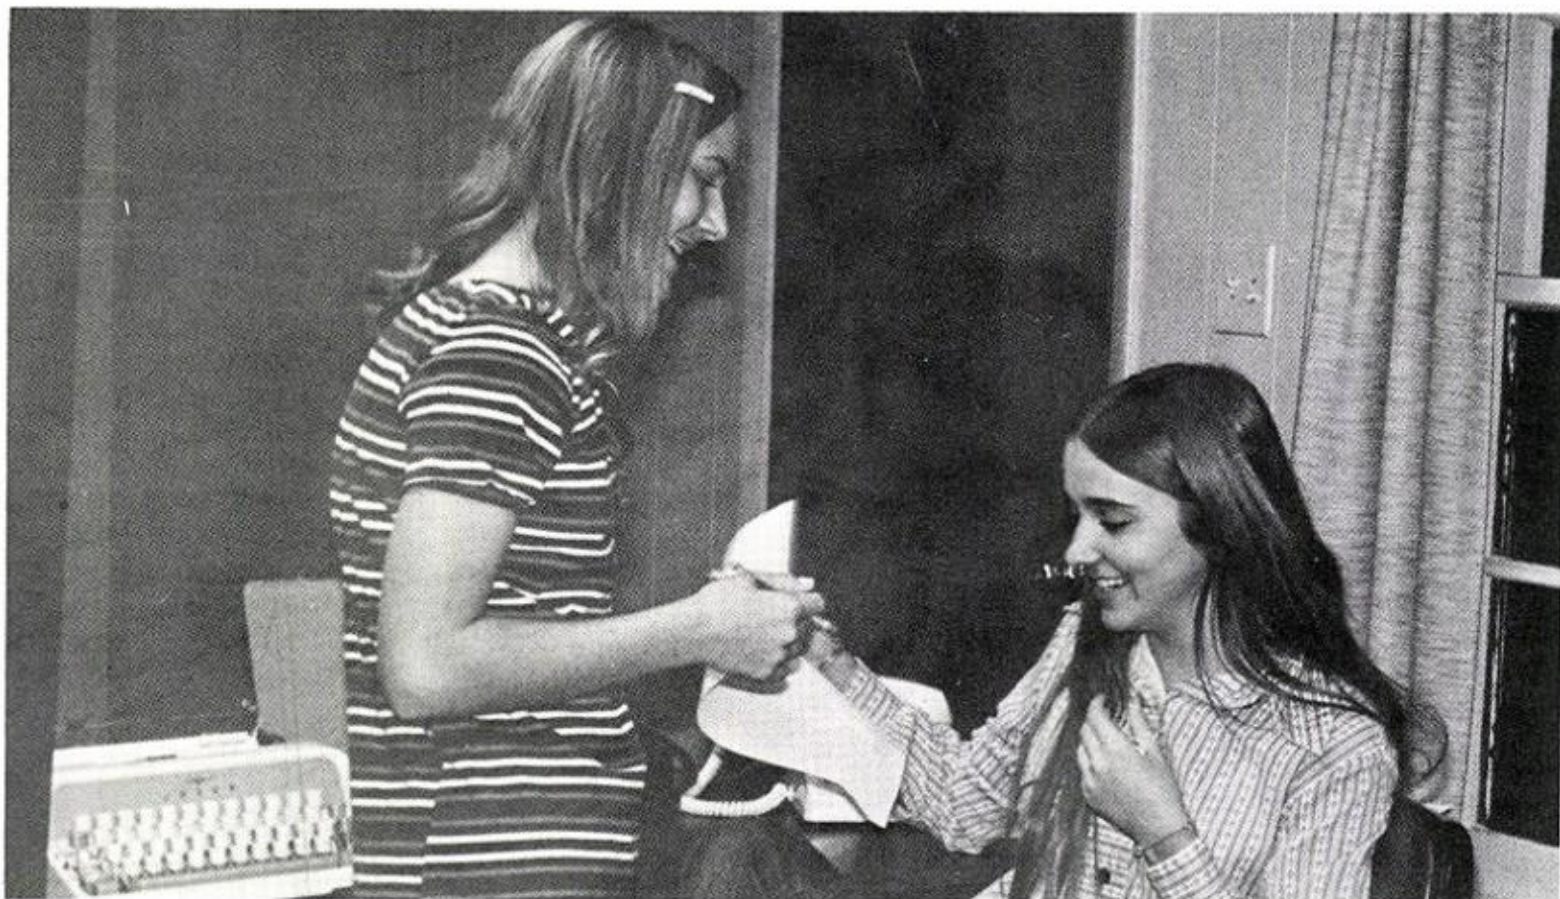

Delving into such controversial issues as streaking, the energy crunch and equal rights, the Big Stick joined the fast pace of high school newspapers. Beginning with an eight page paper consisting of four pages of news and four of features, the Big Stick rapidly grew. The second quarter marked the first change with the "Little Stick" joining the eight page paper. Later in the year the addition of a magazine of features, Speaking Softly, culminated the paper's full growth. The order of the publications runs in this way: Biweekly the Big Stick with eight pages of news, monthly the Big Stick and Speaking Softly, and quarterly the Big Stick with the "Little Stick."

AFS Flag Raising Promotes World Friendship

AFS performed its annual flag raising ceremony this fall, symbolizing world friendship. Elizabeth Tarradelles-Perrin of Bolivia, led the ceremony. Escorted to the friendship circle by the Color Guard, Elizabeth presented Roosevelt with her national flag. Armin Friedli, Ron Reaves, and Pamela Fortson gave speeches on the significance of the ceremony. The Bolivian flag flew over TR for the day, after which it was displayed in the library.

Performing before crowds develops the San Juan Guard's confidence which is needed for future competition. The first appearance of the SJG was an exhibition at the Lee football game.

SJG Drills To Perfection

Not many people realize how much the San Juan Guard is called on to perform at numerous functions. Drill meets, concerts, and football game exhibitions are among the many functions at which they appear.

Late Start For TR

It seemed that nothing could go right. Costly errors, inches between an eager glove and an elusive baseball, all seemed to plague the Riders as they ended up with a disappointing 9-18-1 record for the year. But everything changes and that includes the baseball team's luck. Defense got tough and more hits began to fall. The late start for TR ended up in a 6-7-1 slate marking district play. At the end of the season, team members got together and elected team captains for the year, those being Steve Martin and Ron Litzner.

More To Come . . .

With Alamo judges scrutinizing the drill team, the SJG prepares for a rifle toss, while in the "offset" position.

"We're number one, can't be outdone — The best damn unit in the state! HEY! SAN JUAN GUARD NUMBER ONE!!!"
Before they start their routine at the St. Mary's Drill Meet, the SJG announces who they are in the "Hump It."

Marching slowly in a dignified manner, the team heads out to report for Fancy Drill at the Houston Drill Meet.

TR Track Produces Two Regional Hopefuls

Athletic competition requires a great deal of strength, stamina and to say the least, a tremendous amount of hard work. The determination and effort has many rewards for athletes and in track, one reward is a spot in Regional competition. TR sent two of its best this year, Jim Wolken and Byron Hildebrand. Jim qualified for the mile with his 4:34 timing in the mile run. Byron broke a school record by high jumping 6 feet 6½ inches in a meet and then jumping 6 feet 7 at the Regional Qualifiers meet. The two returned without the spoils, but the fact remains that they went to compete; they did, and that's reward enough. For Byron there is the remembrance, and for Jim there is next year to begin working for.

Brown Resigns From School Board To Run For House Of Representatives

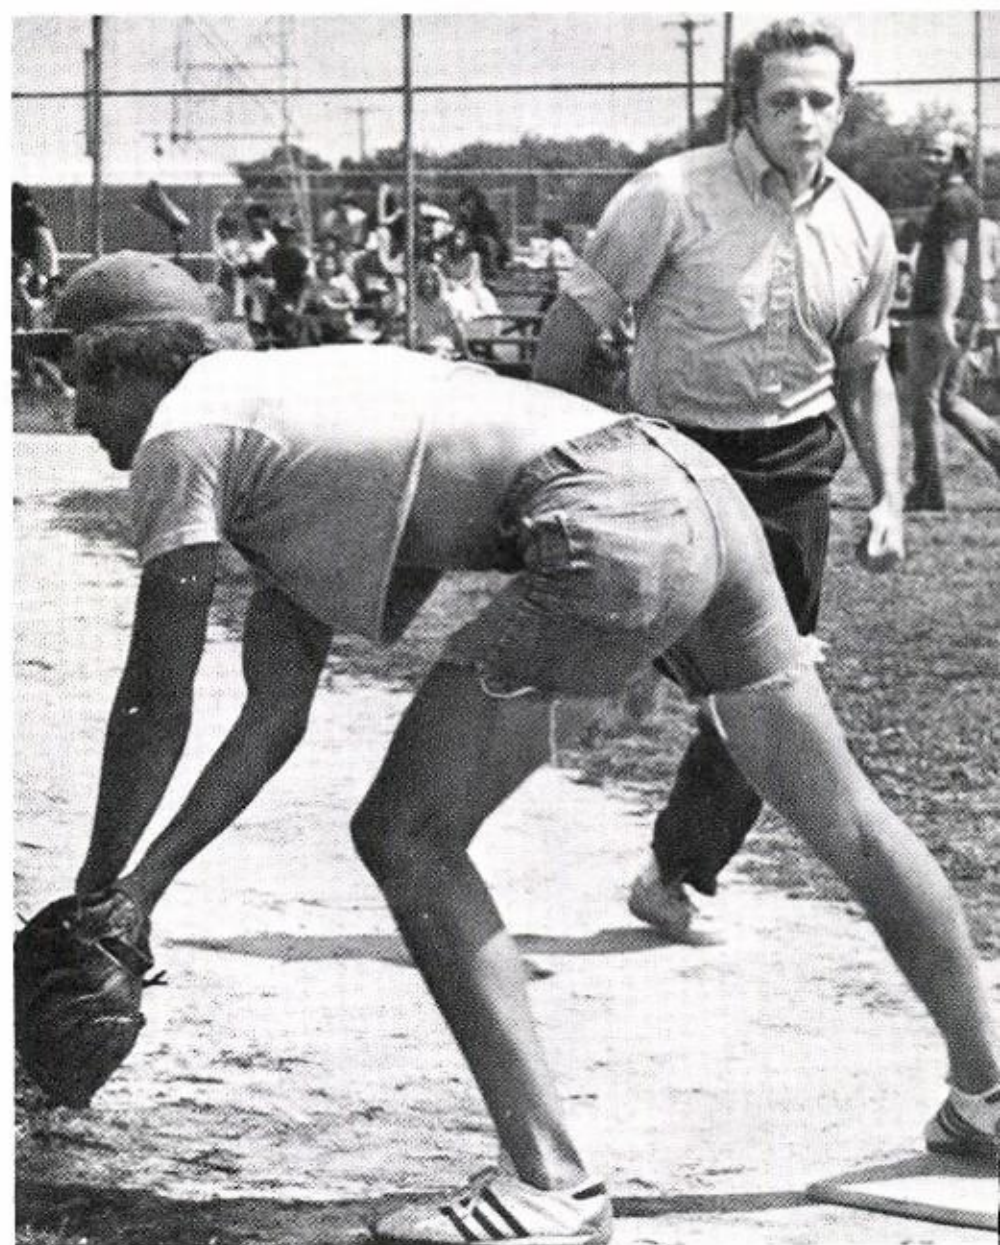

Al Brown, a member of the North East school board, resigned this year to run for a seat in District 57C in the Texas House of Representatives. Elected to the board in 1961, Brown held every elected position including president. He also served as president of the Texas Association of School Boards and as a result the TASB now plays an important role in state educational activities. Principal Marvin Greer stated, "An avid Rough Rider, Brown will be missed as a board member in NEISD."

Sociology Students Try Serendipity

Serendipity was used by Edith Speert's sociology classes as a method of teaching awareness. Students were placed in groups and given Tinker toys to construct. The objective of the group was to make something that would help man or contribute to his society. After having made the model, the students explained why their model would serve a purpose in society. This project, one of many used in sociology, was used to teach awareness of different values and ideas, demonstrate creativity, to help people see the need for group participation, and to show how their models applied to big business, government, and man.

Arson Causes Damage

Set by vandals, a fire in front of the library caused $80 worth of damage to property owned by the school. Four chairs were lost in a fire that was purposely set, a clear-cut case of arson. The fire caused classes to be interrupted; it was not a fire drill, but a situation in which the student body reacted extremely well.

German Banquet Ends Year

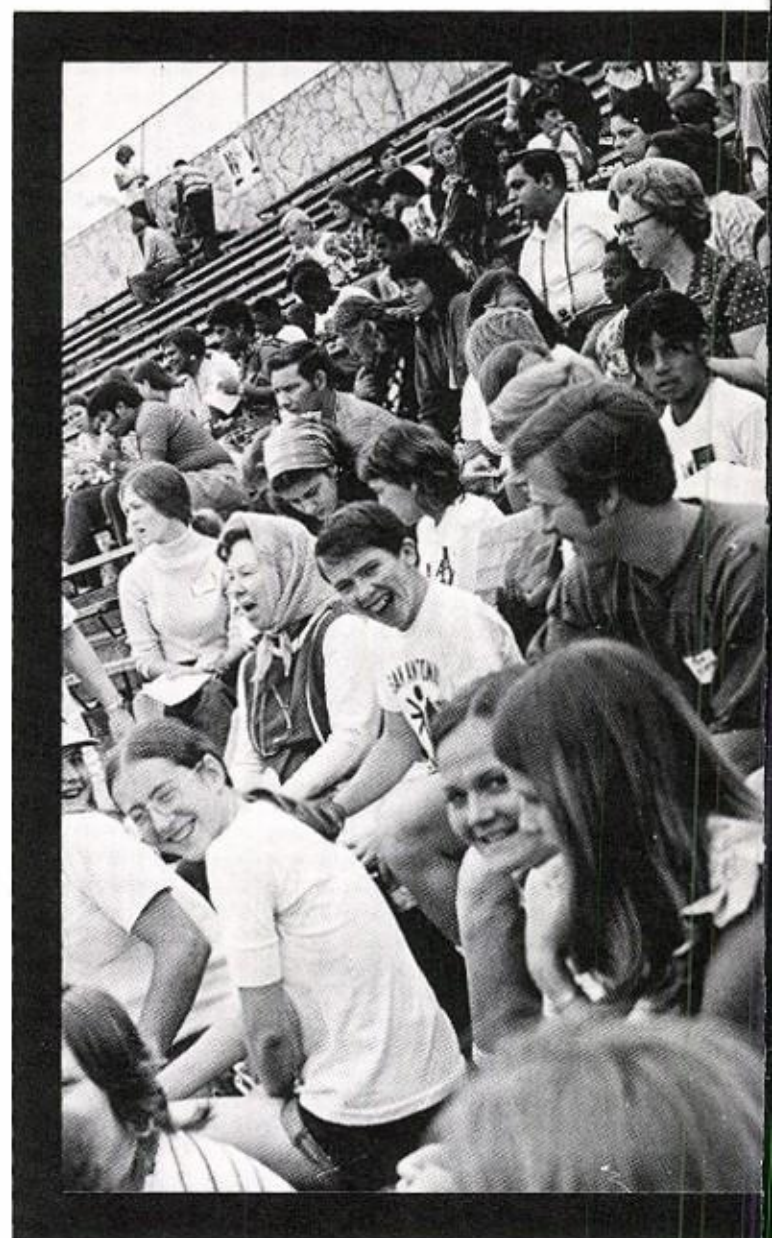

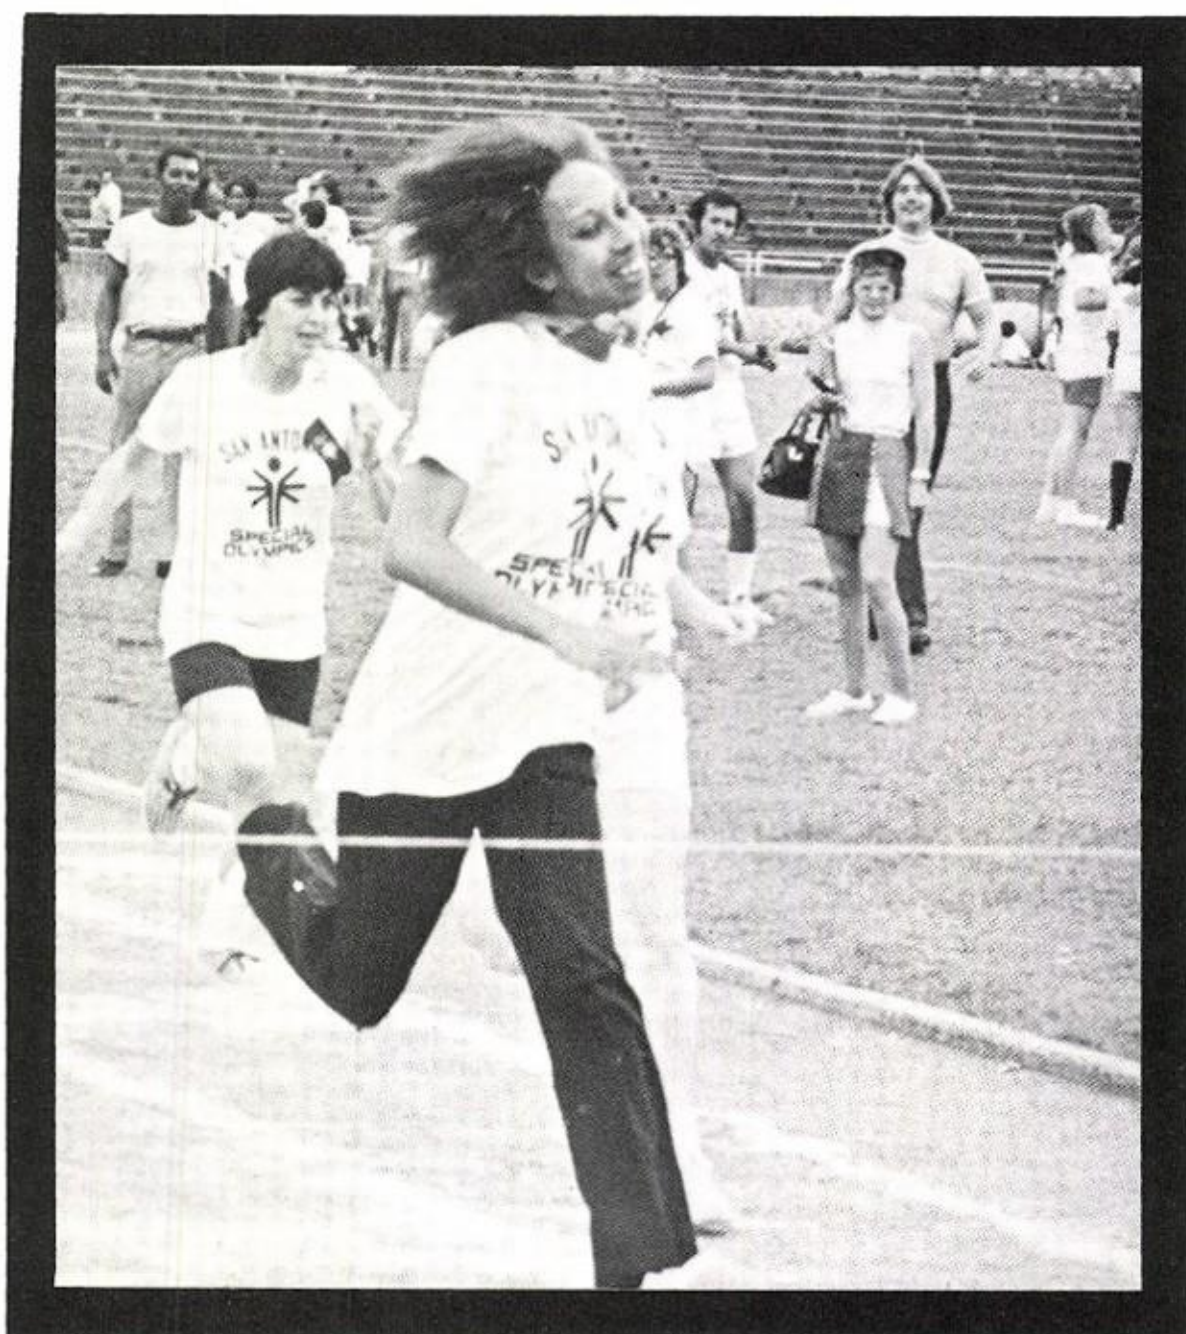

1974 Heralds Crises, Shortages

Amidst all the tests to worry about, the quarter finals, and your exemptions, everyone at TR, as well as the rest of the citizens in the United States, had an energy crisis. There was a gasoline shortage, a paper shortage, a food shortage, and some may even say a brain shortage. Saturday nights service stations closed at nine o'clock and didn't open until Monday, causing people to be stranded on the highways and bi-ways of our nation. And when the stations weren't shut down, the price of gas was anywhere from fifty to seventy cents a gallon. Eventually the gas shortage led to a paper shortage, forcing teachers to cut down on the use of paper for tests and study sheets. Food prices also skyrocketed, mainly the price of meat, vegetables, beans, and rice. In other words, the price of practically anything edible went up. Yes, the start of 1974 did herald many a crisis.

Classes Of '74 And '75 Dance Across "A Threshold Of A Dream"

After long days and hours of hard work, juniors and seniors were whisked across "A Threshold of a Dream." Decorated by members of the junior class, the Mission Room glowed with the theme for the evening as couples whirled across the dance floor. During a brief ceremony, senior superlatives for 1974 were announced. They were each presented an honorary certificate by junior class president Doug Davis.

Symbolizing the theme, a large backdrop designed and painted by Jimmy Bell Webb dominated the room from center stage. Conversely this was the end of the dream of graduation and the beginning of its reality.

Attended by the Classes of '74 and '75, "A Threshold of a Dream" was one of the last times old senior friends would be together, however it will be a long time before the junior-senior prom of 1974 will be forgotten.

Graduation '74 555 Receive Diplomas

Signifying the end of twelve long years of studying and hard work, 555 seniors were graduated at Virgil T. Blossom Athletic Center on May 27. Four years at Roosevelt meant a lot of memories and the Class of '74 had an abundance of them. Each year marking new and different experiences. Each year a very special one.

To many it seemed only yesterday that they were freshmen wandering around the hallowed halls of Roosevelt High. Only yesterday they were freshmen who bought pep rally tickets and keys to the elevator. The thing to do was to become a musician, artist, actor, reserve officer, or join athletics or Cavaliers. Then there was sophomore year when you could look down on freshmen; pep squaders were making sergeants and guys were now on JV teams.

Junior year was great. Patriots meant work and fun for many and the guys made the varsity. The basketball team won the bi-district championship. Do you remember that nerve-racking game with Alamo Heights for the district title?

Senior rings began to arrive and you were finally able to look towards your senior year. "NO ONE GREATER CAME BEFORE, WE'RE THE SENIORS '74" became a familiar cry at the pep rallies and football games. The senior style show was big success. Hour lunches were great.

Before you realized its speed, the year had gone by; it was time to order caps, gowns, and invitations. The prom was coming up and you had to order your girl a corsage, make reservations at a restaurant, and buy the bid. Senior superlatives were elected and your best friend was one of them.

Finally it was time to graduate, and as you walked up to the stage and heard Mr. Winn say "Congratulations," you realized that the twelve years were all over. Yes it went by fast, but as you recalled all those fond memories and friends you left behind, it was a wonderful four years here in Rough Rider Country and you regretted having to leave your buddies — those were the good years.

Roosevelt Gains Asset In Greer

Completing his second year at Roosevelt, Marvin Greer has proved to be an asset to Rough Rider Country. A graduate of Trinity University, Greer holds a Bachelor's Degree in science and a Master's Degree in education. Greer believes in involvement both at Roosevelt and in the community.

He was honored last year with the Freedom Foundation's American Educator's award and was honored again this year by being elected President of the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals. He has not only become an integral part of Rough Rider Country but a well loved one as well.

On these pages he is shown involved in shop, in language lab, in science, in history, in business law and at a pep rally, with both students, and teachers Allan Lavelle, Carolyn Smith and Frances Sprabary.

Assistant Principals Comment On Their Profession

Wesley Davis said, "It gives me an opportunity to help many students that need help in their daily school activities."

"I enjoy working with the students. Mainly I'm in charge of most of the student activities and I hope to accomplish a little better spirit among the students," stated Ronald Reaves.

R. B. Vaughn commented, "I enjoy it! There are certain aspects of the job that aren't as good as others, but essentially I enjoy my job."

Senior class president RIGHT: Armin Friedli seems complacent at the chance of occupying Mr. Greer's desk. "Since the beginning of the year I knew the class of '74 would be the greatest class Roosevelt would ever have. The only way to describe a class like this is people helping people. With the assistance of many seniors and teachers, this year has been a memorable experience for me."

Early planning and enthusiasm accounted for many accomplishments of the junior class. Money projects such as traditional bumper sticker sales and car washes allowed the class to present a Junior-Senior Prom in the true spirit of Rough Rider Country. Several class members achieved outstanding accomplishments in many fields. The ability and imagination of the class was demonstrated by the large number of posters present at all junior-sponsored pep rallies. Leading the way through the year were class officers Doug Davis, President, left, Billy O'Connor, Vice President, Sonia Perez, Secretary, Jim Maganello, Treasurer, and Theresa Garcia, Chaplain, below.

BUILD ON WHAT YOU HAVE

Your entire life is going to be built on the foundation you construct in school. Design it well. The education you receive now is the foundation of your lifelong educational process. The firmer its foundation, the easier it will be for you to build upon it.

Select a good site. Whatever area of life you choose to work in, pick your neighbors carefully. You are best known to those who observe you by the company you keep, so select your friends and business associates from those whose values and interests match your own.

Set your foundation level and square. Plan your life around those constructive activities that you enjoy. Follow the Golden Rule. By doing unto others as you would have them do unto you, you'll find it easier to live with yourself as well as with others.

Build to last. Anything that is worth doing at all is worth doing well. Never leave undone any job you start. The longer it stays incomplete, the more ways it will find to return and haunt you.

Best wishes for your continued success.

Life is a journey

the swish of papers landing in a waste paper basket,
the clanging of a locker,
the echo of footsteps padding down the hall,
the thud of a door closing.

another year has ended.
a year of reports and discussions,
of jokes and laughs,
of picnics and proms,
of tears,
of goodbye's.

all that remains is the memory.
the memory of THE MANY FACES OF ROUGH RIDER COUNTRY.
